CODES/REFERENCES

NOTE: This policy applies to permanent custody orders in effect prior to 1/1/2014 as O.C.G.A. §15-11-58 (1) (2) became obsolete effective 01/01/14. Previous transfers of permanent custody shall continue to be reviewed by the courts.

REQUIREMENTS

The Division of Family and Children Services (DFCS) shall, upon the designation by the court, review the custodial placement of a child with a relative, non-relative, or out-of- state custodian, agency or organization to determine whether the custodian continues to be qualified to care for the child. When designated by the court, DFCS shall:

1. Ensure the reviews are completed and timely submitted to the court.
 - a. If the custodian is a relative, then the review and report are due within 36 months of the placement and every 36 months thereafter; or
 - b. If the custodian is a non-relative, out-of state individual (relative or non- relative), or an agency or organization, then the review and report are due within 12 months of the placement and every 12 months thereafter.
2. If the placement resource resides in Georgia, conduct a home visit with the custodian and subject child(ren) in conjunction with the review process;
3. For custodial relatives living outside of Georgia, who receive a Relative Care Subsidy (RCS), the Social Services Case Manager (SSCM) must make a request through the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children (ICPC) to conduct a home visit during the review process. If ICPC in the other state denies the request, reviews shall be completed via telephone and/or other forms of telecommunication.
4. Ensure that some portion of every visit with the child occurs in private, away from the presence of the custodian and other household members.
5. Utilize the Subsidy or Court Review Six (6), Twelve (12) or Thirty-Six (36) Month form for completion of reviews for all custodial placements.

DFCS shall, upon the request of Juvenile Court, provide assistance with a court review designated to another entity, by providing contact information to assist in locating the child and custodian. The Juvenile Court will make such requests using Request for Assistance in Completing Court Review of Child placed in the Temp Custody of Relative, Non-Relative Out-of-State Custodian or Agency Until the Age of 18.

PROCEDURES

Upon designation by the court to complete the review, the assigned SSCM will:
