Jacobson Schutte, Thomas Kuehn, Silvana Seidel Menchi, 2001-09-01 This collection offers a variety of approaches to aspects of women's lives. It moves beyond men's prescriptive pronouncements about female nature to women's lived experiences replacing the singular woman with plural women and illuminating female agency. The contributors show that women's lives changed over the life course and differed according to region and social class. They also demonstrate that in the early modern period the largely private spaces in women's lives were not enclosed worlds isolated from the public spaces in which men operated. Contributors to this important collection are leading international scholars and offer strong substantial and archival based research. The Athenaeum, 1916 Destination Russia. A ship and a cat in the tundra and other extra-ordinary encounters Roberta Melchiorre, Fabio Bertino, 2018-06-04 The road to travel with Destination Russia is a long one it takes many hours by train. But there is no time to be bored the journey is a continuous discovery unveiling the true essence of this extraordinary country through encounters with ordinary people met in environments only cold in appearance but which in reality warm the heart. Destination Russia is then the narration of a string of unforgettable stories the elderly lady travelling towards a remote archipelago in search of hope or Yashik with his face marked by life who already beyond the Arctic Circle tells us he comes from North the meeting with a cat rather a female cat in the tundra or the one with a couple of railway workers living their love aboard the world's longest railway line or with the students of a school museum. Even the one with an uncontaminated lake or simply with compartment mates on the train where all of Russia travels. The authors show us an extraordinary world through their eyes a gaze that manifests all their love for this endless land a passion as limitless as Russia itself able to overcome geographical boundaries to reach the soul. The Odin Teatret Archives Mirella

Schino, 2017-11-20 The Odin Teatret Archives presents collections from the archives of one of the foremost reference points in global theatre. Odin Teatret have been at the forefront of theatrical innovation for over fifty years devising new strategies for actor training knowledge sharing performance making theatrical alliances and ways of creating and encountering audiences. Their extraordinary work has pushed boundaries between Western and Eastern theatre between process and performance and between different theatre networks across the world. Silk Buckingham, John Sterling, Frederick Denison Maurice, Henry Stebbing, Charles Wentworth Dilke, Thomas Kibble Hervey, William Hepworth Dixon, Norman Maccoll, Vernon Horace Rendall, John Middleton Murry, 1893 Queering the Middle Ages Glenn Burger, Steven F. Kruger, 2001 The essays in this volume present new work that in one way or another queers stabilized conceptions of the Middle Ages allowing us to see the period and its systems of sexuality in radically different off center and revealing ways While not denying the force of gender and sexual norms the authors consider how historical work has written out or over what might have been non normative in medieval sex and culture and they work to restore a sense of such instabilities At the same time they ask how this pursuit might allow us not only to re envision medieval studies but also to rethink how we study culture from our current set of vantage points within postmodernity The authors focus on particular medieval moments Christine de Pizan s representation of female sexuality chastity in the Grail romances the illustration of the sodomite in manuscript commentaries on Dante s Commedia the complex ways that sexuality inflected English national politics at the time of Edward II s deposition the construction of the sodomitic Moor by Reconquista Spain Throughout their work seeks to disturb a logic that sees the past as significant only insofar as it may make sense for and of a stabilized present
