Stick to the Skin Celeste-Marie Bernier, 2019-01-08 The first comparative history of African American and Black British artists artworks and art movements Stick to the Skin traces the lives and works of over fifty painters photographers sculptors and mixed media assemblage installation video and performance artists working in the United States and Britain from 1965 to 2015 The artists featured in this book cut to the heart of hidden histories untold narratives and missing memories to tell stories that stick to the skin and arrive at a new Black lexicon of liberation Informed by extensive research and invaluable oral testimonies Celeste Marie Bernier's remarkable text forcibly asserts the originality and importance of Black artists' work and emphasizes the need to understand Black art as a distinctive category of cultural production. She launches an important intervention into European histories of modern and contemporary art and visual culture as well as into debates within African American studies, African diasporic studies and Black British studies. Among the artists included are Benny Andrews, Bessie Harvey, Lubaina Himid, Claudette Johnson, Noah Purifoy, Faith Ringgold, Betye Saar, Joyce J. Scott, Maud Sulter and Barbara Walker.

The Routledge Companion to African Diaspora Art History Eddie Chambers, 2024-10-31 This is an authoritative companion that is global in scope, recognizing the presence of African Diaspora artists across the world. It is a bold and broad reframing of this neglected branch of art history, challenging dominant presumptions about the field. Diaspora pertains to the global scattering or dispersal of, in this instance, African peoples as well as their patterns of movement from the mid twentieth century onwards. Chapters in this book emphasize the importance of cross-fertilization, interconnectedness and intersectionality in the framing of African Diaspora art history. The book stresses the complexities of artists born within or living and working within the African continent alongside the complexities of Africa-born artists who have migrated to other parts of the world. The group of international contributors emphasizes and accentuates the interplay between, for example, Caribbean art and African Diaspora art or Latin American art and African Diaspora art or Black British art and African Diaspora art. The book will be of interest to scholars and students working in art history, the various branches of African studies, African American studies, African Diaspora studies, Caribbean studies and Latin American studies.

Portrait and Place Giulia Paoletti, 2024-03-05 Strategically located on the Atlantic Ocean at the westernmost point of the continent, Senegal is well known as an epicenter of Africa's modernities, modernisms and liberation movements. It was also one of the countries where the daguerreotype first arrived in sub-Saharan Africa, before circulating inland and across the region. At that time, Senegal did not exist as a nation-state; local kingdoms were still in power and the French presence was limited to trading posts along the coast. The pioneers of photography in the 1840s were not exclusively Europeans but also African, African American and Asian entrepreneurs. In the decades that followed, amateurs and professionals working in rural areas continued to explore and expand photography's possibilities. Senegal's photographic histories thrived as part of a global visual economy during and despite the colonial experience. Its works emerged as an integral part of the history of this medium, which unlike any other was a global enterprise from the very beginning. Portrait and Place offers the first history of photography in this important country from its first iterations, photographers and patrons of the 1840s to photographers such as Oumar Ka b (1930) and Mama Casset (1908-1992) who were active in the 1960s during the transition from the colonial to the postcolonial era. Giulia Paoletti presents close studies of photographs, firmly anchoring these objects, their authors and their consumers in a global context that extends across West Africa, the Black Atlantic and the greater Islamic community. In other words, beyond the borders of colonial empire. Based on over ten years of field and archival research in Senegal, this book features almost exclusively new previously unpublished visual material and explores both professional and amateur artists working in a wide variety of genres from landscape to portraiture and in media such as daguerreotypes and glass paintings As the first book to focus exclusively on Senegal s photographic histories Portrait and place expands the notions of what the medium has been and can be from a Eurocentric model to one that is decidedly insistently larger and more inclusive

Black Artists in British Art Eddie Chambers,2014-07-29 Black artists have been making major contributions to the British art scene for decades since at least the mid twentieth century Sometimes these artists were regarded and embraced as practitioners of note At other times they faced challenges of visibility and in response they collaborated and made their own exhibitions and gallery spaces In this book Eddie Chambers tells the story of these artists from the 1950s onwards including recent developments and successes Black Artists in British Art makes a major contribution to British art history Beginning with discussions of the pioneering generation of artists such as Ronald Moody Aubrey Williams and Frank Bowling Chambers candidly discusses the problems and progression of several generations including contemporary artists such as Steve McQueen Chris Ofili and Yinka Shonibare Meticulously researched this important book tells the fascinating story of practitioners who have frequently been overlooked in the dominant history of twentieth century British art

The Art of Colour Kelly Grovier,2023-04-27 Did you know that the ultramarine that shimmers at the centre of Vermeers Milkmaid connects that masterpiece with 6th century Zoroastrian paintings found on the walls of cave temples in Bamiyan Afghanistan Or that the surging waves that crest and curl in Hokusais perilous Great Wave off Kanagawa owe their absorbing blue lustre to an alchemist who was born in Frankensteins Castle in 1673 And were the Pre Raphaelites really obsessed with a murky brown hue derived from the pulverized remains of ancient mummies Spoiler they were Invented by prehistoric cave dwellers and medieval conjurers cunning conmen and savvy scientists the colours of art tell a riveting tale all their own Over ten scintillating chapters acclaimed author Kelly Grovier helps bring that tale vividly to life revealing the astonishing backstories of the pigments that define the greatest works in the history of art Interwoven between these chapters is a series of features focusing on key moments in the evolution of colour theory from the revelations of the Enlightenment to the radicalism of the Bauhaus while reproductions of carefully selected artworks help illuminate the narratives twists and turns The history of colour is an epic saga of human ingenuity and insatiable desire Read this book and you will never look at a work of art in quite the same way

Lenard D. Moore and African American Haiku Ce Rosenow,2022-07-26 Lenard D Moore and African American Haiku Merging Traditions identifies Moore as a primary figure in the American Haiku Movement as well as a significant contributor to the field of African American haiku Ce Rosenow analyzes the ways in which Moore combines haiku with a variety of other traditions African American storytelling jazz poetry ekphrasis and elegies An examination of Moore s haibun a Japanese form combining prose and haiku reveals the further development of the African American aesthetic created in his individual poems Ultimately the author argues that Moore s decades long engagement with haiku and
