Program Interface Layout
Features	Word is a word processing program that is used to create and edit documents. It is a part of the Microsoft Office suite. The program interface is designed to be user-friendly and efficient. The main window displays the document being edited. The ribbon at the top contains tabs for different groups of commands. The status bar at the bottom provides information about the current document and the program's settings. The Quick Start screen is the first screen you see when you open Word. It shows a list of recent documents and a list of templates. You can click on a document to open it or click on a template to create a new document. The Quick Start screen also shows a list of recent documents and a list of templates.
