G F Watts:

G.F. Watts Mark Bills, Barbara Bryant, George Frederick Watts, 2008 Widely regarded as a genius and as the greatest painter of the Victorian age George Frederic Watts 1817 1904 was a ceaseless experimenter throughout his seventy year career He was not only the finest and most penetrating portraitist of his age but also a sculptor landscape painter and symbolist This beautifully illustrated book encompasses the work of his entire career from his early self portrait in 1834 and first exhibited painting in the Royal Academy in 1837 to his most iconic work Hope and the remarkable almost abstract painting Sower of the Systems completed in 1903 In addition the book includes historic photographs and archival materials especially concerning the establishment in 1904 of the Watts Picture Gallery in Compton Surrey for the permanent exhibition of his art Essays by leading scholars examine the artist s output life reception and legacy Exhibition Schedule Guildhall Art Gallery November 11 2008 April 2009 G.F. Watts Mrs. Russell Barrington, 1905 Masters in art , 1905 The Life-work of George Frederick Watts Hugh Macmillan, 1906 ‘Race Is Everything’ David Bindman, 2023-07-17 A timely and revealing look at the intertwined histories of science art and racism Race Is Everything explores the spurious but influential ideas of so called racial science in the nineteenth and the first half of the twentieth centuries and how art was affected by it David Bindman looks at race in general but with particular concentration on attitudes toward and representations of people of African and Jewish descent He argues that behind all racial ideas of the period lies the belief that outward appearance and especially skull shape as studied in the pseudoscience of phrenology can be correlated with inner character and intelligence and that these could be used to create a seemingly scientific hierarchy of races The book considers many aspects of these beliefs including the skull as a racial marker ancient Egypt as a precedent for Southern slavery Darwin race and aesthetics the purported Mediterranean race the visual aspects of eugenics and the racial politics of Emil Nolde G.F. Watts Gilbert Keith Chesterton, 1914 Masters in Art: English school. Reynolds through Wilkie. American school , 1905 Representations of G.F. Watts Colin Trodd, 2019-07-16 Originally published in 2004 Once the most popular Victorian artist G F Watts was also a complex and elusive figure Influenced by evolutionary theory he reinterpreted the tradition of the classical body while his philanthropic and educational interests informed projects for a more affective public art This book is the first modern account of the full range of Watts s different artistic interests and practices Offering fresh approaches to his historical allegorical and mythological paintings it also traces his increasingly radical approach to portraiture and sculpture and examines the institutional and biographical factors behind his immense public profile Together the essays present a comprehensive analysis of Watts s work and his vital relationship to the intellectual cultural and social forces of his time The World in Paint David Peters Corbett, 2004 This anonymous manuscript play has long been the subject of scholarly dispute regarding its relationship with Shakespeare s Richard II This edition which thoroughly re examines the text situates the play within its historical and political context relating it to the genre of chronicle drama to which it belongs The manuscript is of particular interest in that it appears to have been used in the playhouse over a considerable period of time and contains what seems to be evidence of the theatre practice of the time The play is also of special interest for its skilful and original handling of source material which may well have influenced Shakespeare's Richard II The extensive appendices drawn from Holinshed Grafton and Stow provide the reader with the opportunity to investigate the manner in which the dramatist has shaped the material The editors argue for the play's stage worthiness and dramatic complexity suggesting that its range both of dramatic tone and social inclusiveness indicate the work of a dramatist of considerable skill and subtlety equal or superior to the Shakespeare of the Henry VI plays Art,

Music, and Mysticism at the Fin de Siècle Corrinne Chong, Michelle Foot, 2024-07-29 This edited volume explores the dialogue between art and music with that of mystical currents at the turn of the twentieth century The volume draws on the most current research from both art historians and musicologists to present an interdisciplinary approach to the study of mysticism's historical importance The chapters in this edited volume gauge the scope of different interpretations of mysticism and illuminate how an exchange between the sister arts unveil an underlying stream of metaphysical supernatural and spiritual ideas over the course of the century Case studies include Charles Tournemire Joseph P. Ladan Erik Satie Hilma af Klint Jean Sibelius František Kupka and Wassily Kandinsky The contributors' unique theoretical perspectives and disciplinary methodologies offer expert insight on both the rewards and inevitable aesthetic complications that arise when one artform meets another The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history musicology visual culture and mysticism Ellen Terry, Spheres of Influence Katharine Cockin, 2015-10-06 In this essay collection established experts and new researchers reassess the performances and cultural significance of Ellen Terry her daughter Edith Craig 1869-1947 and her son Edward Gordon Craig 1872-1966 as well as Bram Stoker Lewis Carroll and some less familiar figures Women, Art and Money in Late Victorian and Edwardian England Maria Quirk, 2019-05-16 Women Art and Money in England establishes the importance of women artists' commercial dealings to their professional identities and reputations in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Grounded in economic social and art history the book draws on and synthesises data from a broad range of documentary and archival sources to present a comprehensive history of women artists' professional status and business relationships within the complex and changing art market of late Victorian England By providing new insights into the routines and incomes of women artists and the spaces where they created exhibited and sold their art this book challenges established ideas about what women had to do to be considered professional artists More important than a Royal Academy education or membership to exhibiting societies was a woman's ability to sell her work This meant that women had strong incentive to paint in saleable popular and middlebrow genres which reinforced prejudices towards women's naturally inferior artistic ability prejudices that continued far into the twentieth century From shining a light on the difficult to trace pecuniary arrangements of little researched artists like Ethel Mortlock to offering new and direct comparisons between the incomes earned by male and female artists and the genres commissions and exhibitions that earned women the most money Women Art and Money is a timely contribution to the history of women s working lives that is relevant to a number of scholarly disciplines G.F. Watts G.K. Chesterton,2022-11-22 G K Chesterton s G F Watts is a profound exploration of the life and artistic vision of British painter and sculptor George Frederic Watts best known for his allegorical and symbolic works that convey deep philosophical themes Written in Chesterton s signature style the book combines eloquent prose with a vivid narrative painting a portrait not just of Watts the artist but of the social and cultural milieu that shaped his oeuvre Chesterton employs a rich tapestry of anecdotes and critical analysis to contextualize Watts within the broader landscape of Victorian art and the Pre Raphaelite movement illuminating how his work reflects the spiritual and moral questions of his time G K Chesterton a luminary of the early 20th century was not only a prolific writer but also a cultural critic deeply engaged with contemporary art and thought His admiration for Watts aligns with his own philosophical inquiries into faith morality and the power of creativity Given Chesterton s background in literature philosophy and journalism he adeptly seeks to elevate Watts significance ensuring that readers recognize his profound impact on both art and society This book is an essential read for those interested in art history cultural criticism and the interplay between aesthetics and ethics Chesterton s passionate discourse invites readers to reflect on the transformative power of art and the role of the artist in grappling with profound questions of existence making it a valuable addition to any serious literary or artistic collection *George Frederic Watts ...
