farm to manage moves his family into a squalid apartment and gets a job at a squalid factory The minister's son raised by the housekeeper grows up to be good hearted but totally inept so that his ruthless in laws easily defraud him of his father's farm which they turn into a tourist resort The minister's daughter Paula whom he had by the cook and who was raised by a childless widow in another town is ostracized after the Revolution because of who her father was even though she hardly ever knew him Isabel the ex wife also ends up all alone in a crummy kitchenette in Lisbon but she isn't a casualty of Senhor Francisco or of society or of a political regime but of love of its near impossibility Disillusioned by all the relationships she had with men she stoutly resists Francisco's ardent attempts to win her back preferring solitude instead We have to go to the housekeeper Titina this novel's most compelling character to find hope of salvation however unlikely a source she seems Unattractive and uneducated Titina never had a romantic love relationship though she secretly loved her boss who never suspected She ends up like him in an old folks home and like him she spends her days looking back and dreaming of returning to the farm in its heyday Old age is a great equalizer And yet the two characters are not equal Titina retains her innocence But it's not the innocence of helpless inability the case of Jo o Francisco's son nor is it the pathetic innocence of Romeu the emotionally and mentally undeveloped co worker by whom Paula has a son Titina isn't helpless or ingenuous and she isn't immune to the less than flattering human feelings of jealousy impatience and anger But she never succumbs to baser instincts She knows her worth and cultivates it She is a proud woman but proud only of what she really is and what she has really accomplished in life At one level and it operates at many The Inquisitorsssss Manual is an inquiry into the difficult coexistence of self affirmation and tenderness toward others Their correct balance which equals human dignity occurs in the housekeeper
