The background of the slide is a collage of technical and industrial images. It features a large, semi-circular pressure gauge with a needle pointing towards the right. To the left of the gauge is a red handwheel, likely part of a hydraulic pump or valve. Overlaid on these images are faint technical diagrams, including a schematic of a hydraulic circuit with components labeled 'P' (pump), 'A', 'M1', and 'M2'. The overall color scheme is dominated by blue and white, with the red handwheel providing a contrasting element.
