How to Lose a War Amin Saikal, 2024-06-25 An incisive authoritative account of the West's failures in Afghanistan from 9 11 to the fall of Kabul In 1958 Richard Nixon described Afghanistan as unconquerable On 15 August 2021 he was proven right After twenty years of intervention US and NATO forces retreated enabling the Taliban to return to power Tens of thousands were killed in the long unwinnable war and millions more were displaced leaving the future of Afghanistan hanging in the balance Leading expert Amin Saikal traces the full story of America's intervention from 9 11 to the present crisis After an initial swift military strike the US became embroiled in a drawn out struggle to change Afghanistan but failed to achieve its aims Saikal shows how this failure was underlined by protracted attempts to capture Osama bin Laden an inability to secure a viable government via democracy promotion efforts and lack of wider strategy in the war on terror How to Lose a War offers an insightful account of one of the US's most significant foreign policy failures and considers its dire consequences for the people of Afghanistan

Crude Oil, Crude Money Thomas W. Lippman, 2019-05-03 The untold story of how Exxon Mobil Chevron and Texaco teamed up with the CIA and Department of State to thwart the plans of Greek shipping magnate Aristotle Onassis who almost managed to reshape the Middle East In 1954 Aristotle Onassis long before he married Jacqueline Kennedy made a bold business gamble he tried to corner the crude oil shipping market by signing a deal with the King of Saudi Arabia If it had worked it would have reshaped the history of the Middle East As it was the proposed deal terrified British and US oil companies and the Dulles brothers who saw it as the first move in the nationalization of Saudi oil Complicating things was the burgeoning Arab nationalist movement led by Egypt's newly elected president Gamal Nasser And of course there were the Soviets now without Stalin eager to build influence in the region This little known story about the collision of nationalism money celebrity and oil sheds new light on the tangled history of the Middle East Drawing on the author's immense knowledge of the Middle East and original research incorporating unexplored declassified documents the book is an eye opener for students of US foreign policy anyone interested in the global oil business and scholars and historians of the role of the US in the Arab world

The European Union as a Global Conflict Manager Richard G.

Whitman, Stefan Wolff, 2012 This book provides a comprehensive assessment of how the EU has performed in facilitating mediation conflict resolution and peacebuilding across the globe      Professional Journal of the United States Army, 2013

The Iraq Papers John Ehrenberg, 2010 This work is a comprehensive document collection of America's misadventure in Iraq The editors have organized the book around the concept of pre-emption a policy that represented a significant break with past American foreign policy      Significant Food Jeff Birkenstein, Robert C. Hauhart, 2024 Significant Food is a collaborative work of textual analysis and criticism that chews on the role and prominence of food in American literature The volume offers close readings of many well known and some less well known examples of American writing as studied through the food culture sensibilities of a well stocked cupboard of contributors who offer their analyses for public consumption Editors Jeff Birkenstein and Robert C Hauhart find that literary criticism has focused on the role food plays in literary production to a greater extent than recognized at first glance and that its role has become increasingly common only in the last two decades Still while there is critical commentary regarding authors use of food across the expanse of American literature there has been a lack of a unifying critical theories to guide these analyses Birkenstein and Hauhart offer the theory of significant food a method that asks literary critics to evaluate and assess the extent nature and role that food plays in literary production When food and food moments are used intensively and significantly within the drama memoir poem novel short story or other writing then one can say that it has achieved a status that makes it indispensable to the work at hand      Living by the Gun in Chad Marielle Debos, 2016-10-15 How do people live in a country that has experienced rebellions and state organised repressions for decades and that is still marked by routine forms of violence and impunity What do combatants do when they are not mobilised for war Drawing on over ten years of fieldwork conducted in Chad Marielle Debos explains how living by the gun has become both an acceptable form of political expression and an everyday occupation Contrary to the popular association of violence and chaos she shows that these fighters continue to observe rules frontiers and hierarchies even as their allegiances shift between rebel and government forces and as they drift between Chad Libya Sudan and the Central African Republic Going further she explores the role of the globalised politico military entrepreneurs and highlights the long involvement of the French military in the country Ultimately the book demonstrates that ending the war is not enough The issue is ending the inter war which is maintained and reproduced by state violence Combining ethnographic observation with in depth theoretical analysis Living by the Gun in Chad is a crucial contribution to our understanding of the intersections of war and peace      Pitch, Tweet, or Engage on the Street Kara Alaimo, 2016-08-25 Pitch Tweet or Engage on the Street offers a modern guide for how to practice public relations and strategic communication around the globe Drawing upon interviews with public relations professionals in over 30 countries as well as the author's own experience as a global public relations practitioner in the United Nations and in U S President Barack Obama's administration this book explains how to adapt public relations strategies messages and tactics for countries and cultures around the globe The book begins by explaining key cultural differences which require practitioners to adapt their approaches before discussing how to build and manage a global public relations team and how to practice global public relations on behalf of corporations non profit organizations and governments Then the book takes readers on a tour of the world explaining how to adapt their campaigns for Asia Pacific Europe the Middle East the Americas and Sub Saharan Africa Along the way readers are introduced to practitioners around the globe and case studies of particularly successful campaigns from a public relations siege that successfully ended an epidemic of violence in Kenya to the remarkable P R strategy adopted by Bordeaux wineries in China that led to a staggering 26 900 percent increase in sales Desegregation State

Annie S. Mendenhall, 2022-04-15 The only book length study of the ways that postsecondary desegregation litigation and policy affected writing instruction and assessment in US colleges Desegregation State provides a history of federal enforcement of higher education desegregation and its impact on writing programs from 1970 to 1988 Focusing on the University System of Georgia and two of its public colleges in Savannah one a historically segregated white college and the other a historically Black college Annie S Mendenhall shows how desegregation enforcement promoted and shaped writing programs by presenting literacy remediation and testing as critical to desegregation efforts in southern and border states Formerly segregated state university systems crafted desegregation plans that gave them more control over policies for admissions remediation and retention These plans created literacy requirements admissions and graduation tests remedial classes and even writing centers and writing across the curriculum programs that reshaped the landscape of college writing instruction and denied the demands of Black students civil rights activists and historically Black colleges and universities for major changes to university systems This history details the profound influence of desegregation and resistance to desegregation on the ways that writing is taught and assessed in colleges today Desegregation State provides WPAs and writing teachers with a disciplinary history for understanding racism in writing assessment and writing programs Mendenhall brings emerging scholarship on the racialization of institutions into the field showing why writing studies must pay more attention to how writing programs have institutionalized racist literacy ideologies through arguments about student placement individualized writing instruction and writing assessment China's Bilateral Relations with Its Principal

Oil Suppliers George G. Eberling, 2017-10-23 This book examines China s bilateral relations with its established suppliers of crude petroleum and on occasion petroleum gas products including liquefied natural gas LNG based on a five dimensional framework political diplomatic relations economic trade relations military security relations cultural relations and petroleum energy relations A five dimensional approach is comprehensive in nature and offers a complete understanding of China s complex relationships rather than looking solely on more typical perspectives like bilateral trade security relationships or energy ties More often than not social science literature focuses on one or more aspects of China s bilateral relations which does not provide a complete picture of the complex nature of its interstate ties This book endeavors to bridge this gap and look more substantially at China's bilateral relationships with energy petroleum relations being the key aspect linking each one of them. The specific bilateral relationships examined are China's relations with Angola, Brazil, Republic of the Congo, Iran, Iraq, Kazakhstan, Kuwait, Oman, Russia, Saudi Arabia, South Sudan, Sudan, United Arab Emirates, and Venezuela. These countries matter because their crude petroleum and petroleum gas product exports account for over 50 percent of China's annual oil consumption.

Space Strategy in the 21st Century Eligar Sadeh, 2013-02-11. This book offers an overview of space strategy in the 21st century. The purpose of space strategy is to coordinate, integrate, and prioritize space activities across security, commercial, and civil sectors. Without strategy, space activities continue to provide value, but it becomes difficult to identify and execute long-term programs and projects and to optimize the use of space for security, economic, civil, and environmental ends. Strategy is essential for all these ends since dependence on and use of space is accelerating globally and space is integrated in the fabric of activities across all sectors and uses. This volume identifies a number of areas of concern pertinent to the development of national space strategy, including intellectual foundations, political challenges, international cooperation, and space governance. Space assurance and political, organizational, and management aspects specific to security space strategy. The contributing authors expand their focus beyond that of the United States and explore and analyse the international developments and implications of national space strategies of Russia, China, Europe, Japan, India, Israel, and Brazil. This book will be of much interest to students of space power and politics, strategic studies, foreign policy, and International Relations in general.

Purdue's Female Founders Angie Klink, 2025-10-01. Purdue's Female Founders: The Untold History of Trailblazing Women Faculty chronicles and celebrates the fortitude and achievements of the foremothers of Purdue University. This engaging book offers a collection of profiles of women faculty who, despite profound roadblocks because of their gender, shaped the institution from its beginning in the late 1800s through the latter half of the twentieth century. These are the stories of Purdue women who persevered against the odds to follow their dreams, to conduct research and teach, to establish departments, schools, and colleges, and to blaze paths in a male-dominated culture. Readers will learn about women who faced discrimination but persisted and thrived despite prejudice. These compelling profiles celebrate women in art, science, nutrition, literature, nursing, speech, engineering, fashion design, home economics, family life, psychology, agriculture, health, and kinesiology, business, and more. Covering 125 years of university history told through the female lens, this book rightfully honors the many women who helped shape Purdue.

Modern Sufis and the State Katherine Pratt Ewing, Rosemary R. Corbett, 2020-08-25. Sufism is typically thought of as the mystical side of Islam. In recent years, it has been held up as a supposedly peaceful alternative to the spread of forms of Islam associated with violence, an embodiment of democratic ideals of tolerance and pluralism. Are Sufis in fact as otherworldly and apolitical as this stereotype suggests? Modern Sufis and the State brings together a range of scholars, including anthropologists, historians, and religious studies specialists, to challenge common assumptions that are made about Sufism today. Focusing on India and Pakistan within a broader global context, this book provides locally grounded accounts of how Sufis in South Asia have engaged in politics from the colonial period to the present Contributors foreground the effects and unintended consequences of efforts to link Sufism with the spread of democracy and consider what roles scholars and governments have played in the making of twenty first century Sufism They critique the belief that Salafism and Sufism are antithetical offering nuanced analyses of the diversity multivalence and local embeddedness of Sufi political engagements and self representations in Pakistan and India Essays question the portrayal of Sufi shrines as sites of toleration peace and harmony exploring cases of tension and conflict A wide ranging interdisciplinary collection Modern Sufis and the State is a timely call to think critically about the role of public discourse in shaping perceptions of Sufism

Defiant Failed State Bruce E. Bechtol, Jr., 2010 Since the 1990s the American government has under prioritized the North Korean threat to global security according to Bruce Bechtol an associate professor of political science at Angelo State University Because North Korea appears economically weak and politically unstable it is therefore often categorized as a state on the brink of collapse or a failed state But Bechtol makes a convincing case that North Korea is more complex and menacing than it how it has often been characterized Defiant Failed State shows how the North Korean government has adapted to the post Cold War environment and poses a multifaceted danger to U S national security and that of its allies Bechtol analyzes North Korea s military capabilities nuclear program proliferation and leadership succession to mine the answers to important questions such as is North Korea a failing or failed state Is it capable of surviving indefinitely Why and how does it present such risk to Asia and the United States and its allies This book sheds new light on the nature of the North Korean threat and the key foreign policy issues that remain unresolved between the United States and South Korea It is essential reading for scholars policymakers military strategists functional and regional specialists and anyone who is interested in East Asian affairs
