BOOK ONE
Moments in Time
Novella Series

A romantic scene of a couple kissing on a wooden pier at sunset. The man is wearing a light blue shirt and the woman is wearing a white dress. In the foreground, there is a white lantern with a warm glow and two wine glasses filled with red wine. The background shows the ocean and a few birds flying in the sky.

Entangled Moments Moments In Time Book English Edition:

, Karen Barad as Educator Karin Murris, 2022-04-12 This book is about becoming touched and moved by Karen Barad's agential realism Karen Barad as Educator is not biographical It is not about Barad There is much to be learned about teaching and education research through the human and other than human narrative characters in Barad's writings and way of life Reading this book is about becoming entangled with and being inspired by a passionate yearning for a radical reconfiguration of education in all its settings and phases e.g. day care centres schools colleges universities but also homes museums or therapy rooms This book will appeal to lecturers teachers artists therapists parents and grandparents funders of education research organisers of educational events as well as detached youth workers In short this book will speak to anyone interested in the what and the how of educational encounters and who is interested in alternatives to the dominant neoliberal national curricula educational policies and humanist teaching research and conference agendas The book aims to offer a gripping account for educators to be inspired by the invigorating and elusive philosophy of agential realism with a specific focus on iterative performative practices that profoundly matter to what counts as knowledge teaching learning and response able education science Multisituated Kaushik Sunder Rajan, 2021-09-27 In Multisituated Kaushik Sunder Rajan evaluates the promises and potentials of multisited ethnography with regard to contemporary debates around decolonizing anthropology and the university He observes that at the current moment anthropology is increasingly peopled by diasporic students and researchers all of whom are accountable to multiple communities beyond the discipline In this light Sunder Rajan draws on his pedagogical experience and dialogues to reconceptualize ethnography as a multisituated practice of knowledge production ethical interlocution and political intervention Such a multisituated ethnography responds to contemporary anthropology's myriad commitments as it privileges attention to questions of scale comparison and the politics of ethnographic encounters Foregrounding the conditions of possibility and difficulty for those doing and teaching ethnography in the twenty first century Sunder Rajan gestures toward an ethos and praxis of ethnography that would open new forms of engagement and research The Atlantic Monthly, 1887 Atlantic Monthly, 1887 A/AS Level English Literature A for AQA Student Book Russell Carey, Anne Fairhall, Tom Rank, 2015-11-12 Created specifically for the AQA A/AS level English literature A specification for first teaching from 2015 this print student book is suitable for all abilities providing stretch opportunities for the more able and additional scaffolding for those who need it Helping bridge the gap between GCSE and A level the unique three part structure focuses on texts within a particular time period and supports students in interpreting texts and reflecting on how writers make meaning The Body Politics of Glocal Social Work Mona B. Livholts, 2022-12-30 This book shapes a situated body politics to re think re write and de colonise social work as a post anthropocentric discipline headed towards glocalisation where human and non human embodiments and agencies are entangled in glocal environmental worlds It critically and creatively examines how social work can be theorised practised and written in renewed ways through dialogical and transdisciplinary practices This book is composed of eight essayistic spaces envisioning social work through embodied glocal and earthly entanglements By drawing on research based knowledge autobiographical notes stories poetry photographs and an art exhibition in social work education these essays provide readers with analysis and strategies that are useful for research education and practice as well as life long learning The book constitutes key literature for researchers educators practitioners and activists in social work sociology architecture art and creative writing feminist and postcolonial studies human geography and post anthropocentric philosophy It offers the readers sustainable ways to re think and re write social work towards a glocal and post anthropocentric more than human worldview

H. G. Wells Collector's Book of Science Fiction H. G. Wells, 2012-03-07 This book contains the complete novels The War of the Worlds The First Men on the Moon and When the Sleeper Wakes Also included are a variety of short stories including the noted The Country of the Blind The Empire of the Ants The Valley of Spiders and The Man Who Could Work Miracles In addition to those spectacular accounts Stories of the Stone Age are included as an extra bonus These stories appear exactly as they did in the illustrated magazines that were prevalent in the early 1900s This collection of Wells' most famous science fiction breathes new life into these already thrilling stories some of which have not been seen in decades Wells published his first science fiction novel in 1895 to widespread acclaim This illustrated hardcover collection makes the perfect gift for any science fiction reader and lover of literature

Higher Education Hauntologies Vivienne Bozalek, Michalinos Zembylas, Siddique Motala, Dorothee Holscher, 2021-04-13 Higher Education Hauntologies considers how higher education might benefit from thinking about Derrida's notion of hauntology and its implications for a justice to come It contributes to the imperative to rethink the university across and with in global geopolitical spaces and thus has appeal for both Southern and international contexts The book includes ideas which push boundaries that previously served higher education teachers and scholars and proposes new imaginaries of higher education Additionally the collection makes a contribution to ongoing debates about the epistemological ethical ontological and political implications of hauntology in higher education policies and practices particularly in line with contemporary concerns for more socially just possibilities and visions in higher education This book will be of great interest for academics researchers and postgraduate students of posthumanism and new materialism who are looking for new perspectives to engage with and for those who are concerned about a justice to come in education higher education and educational theory and policy

Agamben's Political Ontology of Nudity in Literature and Art Frances Restuccia, 2019-05-13 This volume develops the central though neglected Agambenian concept of nudity along with its crucial political implications The book discovers within The Use of Bodies a philosophical path to Agamben's ontology of nudity as it is subtended by his notion of the messianic a dual temporality of form in motion reflected in the image of a whirlpool that is autonomous although no drop of water belongs to it separately Drawn from Paul and Benjamin rather than Derrida Agamben's messianic is elaborated in this study through its embodiment in literature Woolf's To the Lighthouse

James s The Aspern Papers Brodsky s Watermark and Mann s Death in Venice in response to Agamben s insistence on the wedding of poetry and philosophy In particular Coetzee s Disgrace gives poetic form to Agamben s focus on the dissolution of the human animal border the salvation of the unsavable and nudity all to illustrate Agamben s Open without a closedness This text shows how art serves as the house of philosophy also by taking up the nude in visual art making the case that in comprising chronos and kairos the two messianic components of Agamben s ontology of nudity art demonstrates the constitution of form of life for the viewer Emphasizing Agamben s privileged non unveilability nudity this book finally examines two major missed encounters with Heidegger and Lacan philosophers of the veil Veiling to Agamben correlates with the sovereignty bare life structure of the exception which his ontology of nudity is meant to deactivate as there is no such thing as a bare life

Energy Talk Daniel M. Knight, 2025-05-15 Energy Talk disrupts the claims of institutionalized categories such as sustainability green economy climate change and net zero that promote a shared consensus on energy transition These concepts often conceal the intricate details of how people engage with rapidly shifting sociotechnical environments On the plains of Thessaly Greece interactions with the emerging energy landscape particularly the expanding photovoltaic solar program lead people to critique long standing assumptions about nationalism and belonging their experience of time and modernity the morality of entrepreneurial opportunism and historically grounded notions of neo colonialism and foreign occupation Daniel M Knight showcases how obscured adelo knowledge is exposed during epochs of intense upheaval Since 2009 Greece has been a hot spot of interrelated crises around which new socio techno natural contracts have emerged Energy is a pivot for comprehending a decade where conventional information has been upended traditions challenged and assumptions fractured Energy Talk offers an ethnographically and theoretically rich rereading of established categories usually associated with the green transition from their local particularity to the potential implications for planetary relations

Holy Science Banu Subramaniam, 2019-05-15 Behind the euphoric narrative of India as an emerging world power lies a complex and evolving relationship between science and religion Evoking the rich mythology of comingled worlds where humans animals and gods transform each other and ancient history Banu Subramaniam demonstrates how Hindu nationalism sutures an ideal past to technologies of the present to make bold claims about the Vedic Sciences and the scientific Vedas Moving beyond a critique of India s emerging bionationalism this book explores the generative possibility of myth and story interweaving compelling new stories into a rich analysis that animates alternative imaginaries and other worlds of possibilities

The Routledge Companion to European Cinema Gábor Gergely, Susan Hayward, 2021-12-29 Presenting new and diverse scholarship this wide ranging collection of 43 original chapters asks what European cinema tells us about Europe The book engages with European cinema that attends to questions of European colonial racialized and gendered power seeks to decentre Europe itself not merely its putative centres and interrogate Europe s various conceptualizations from a variety of viewpoints It explores the broad complex and heterogeneous community ies produced in and by European films taking in Kurdish Hollywood and Singapore cinema as comfortably as the cinema of Poland Spanish colonial films or the European gangster genre Chapters cover numerous topics including individual films film movements filmmakers stars scholarship representations and identities audiences production practices genres and more all analysed in their context s so as to construct an image of Europe as it emerges from Europe s film corpus The Companion opens the study of European cinema to a broad readership and is ideal for students and scholars in film European studies queer studies and cultural studies as well as historians with an interest in audio visual culture nationalism and transnationalism and those working in language based area studies Experiencing English Literature Andrew

Atherton,2023-11-16 What does it mean to experience a work of literature What role does response play in the creation of literary meaning And what matters really matters in the teaching of English Literature In this book Andrew Atherton offers a powerful and timely account of the vital role that student response plays in the English Literature classroom This text is deeply immersed in the disciplinary traditions and legacies of what it has meant to experience English Literature both for its teachers and students As the English teaching community try to move beyond exam driven responses highly restrictive essay structures and explicit teaching of interpretation this innovative text helps teachers to encourage responses from students that are more authentic and co constructed It contains dedicated chapters for teaching novels plays and poetry as well as generative writing sentence level analysis and essay structure Each chapter is furnished with a wealth of ideas routines and activities all ready to be embedded directly into the classroom This book will play a key role in this continuing rejuvenation of an experience of English Literature that places a premium on student response and how to shape it Experiencing English Literature remains actionable and practical written first and foremost for teachers It will be essential reading for any KS3 4 5 teacher of English Literature as well as Senior Leaders seeking to better understand the disciplinary traditions of English Literature Fugitive Time Matthew Omelsky,2023-11-03 In Fugitive Time Matthew Omelsky theorizes the embodied experience of time in twentieth and twenty first century black artforms from across the world Through the lens of time he charts the sensations and coursing thoughts that accompany desires for freedom as they appear in the work of artists as varied as Toni Morrison Yvonne Vera Aim C saire and Issa Samb Fugitive time names a distinct utopian desire directed at the anticipated moment when the body and mind have been unburdened of the violence that has consumed black life globally for centuries bringing with it a new form of being Omelsky shows how fugitive time is not about attaining this transcendent release but is instead about sustaining the idea of it as an ecstatic social gathering From the desire for ethereal queer worlds in the Black Audio Film Collective s Twilight City to Sun Ra s transformation of nineteenth century scientific racism into an insurgent fugitive aesthetic Omelsky shows how fugitive time evolves and how it remains a dominant form of imagining freedom in global black cultural expression The Collector's Book of Science Fiction by H.G. Wells Herbert George Wells,1978 Including the complete novels The war of the worlds The first men in the moon When the sleeper wakes the short stories The country of the blind The empire of the ants The valley of spiders The man who could work miracles and many more

Transglobal Humanities: Meeting the Moment Mark K. Warford, 2025-03-25 As the world turns toward increased cultural and commercial integration it is not clear that humanities programs are sufficiently equipped to engage a global turn in higher education Furthermore though global engagement has emerged as a buzzword with cache across campus and community organizational missions the current humanities canon may likewise be ill equipped to meet the moment Accordingly the chapters contained in this volume which reflect a richly global diversity of authors themes and disciplines critically examine structures that determine the what and how of humanities dissemination worldwide including technological innovation as well as the dominance of English translated works in the curriculum and the global humanities market Additionally we examine blendings of the local and the global the particular and the universal the many faces of the cultural other and possibilities for unothering in humanities arts and letters curriculum and pedagogies Go Be a Writer! Candace R. Kuby, Tara Gutshall Rucker, 2016-04-15 This book provides an introduction to poststructural and posthumanist theories in order to imagine new possibilities for expanding literacy education The authors put to work these theories in the context of an elementary school classroom examining literacy based activities that occur as students participate with materials in a multimedia writers studio Focusing on literacy processes the book emphasizes the fluid and sometimes unintentional ways multimodal artifacts come into being through intra actions with human and nonhuman materials Because these theories emphasize the unplanned nonlinear aspects of literacy the authors demonstrate an approach to literacy that works against the grain of standardization and rigid curricular models Go Be a Writer reveals that when educators appreciate the value of unscripted intra actions they allow for more authentic learning The Moral Worlds of Contemporary Realism Mary K. Holland, 2020-06-11 Literature has never looked weirder full of images colors gadgets and footnotes and violating established norms of character plot and narrative structure Yet over the last 30 years critics have coined more than 20 new realisms in their attempts to describe it What makes this decidedly unorthodox literature realistic And if it is then what does realism mean anymore Examining literature by dozens of writers and over a century of theory and criticism about realism The Moral Worlds of Contemporary Realism sorts through the current critical confusion to illustrate how our ideas about what is real and how best to depict it have changed dramatically especially in recent years Along the way Mary K Holland guides the reader on a lively tour through the landscape of contemporary literary studies taking in metafiction ideology posthumanism postmodernism and poststructuralism with forays into quantum mechanics new materialism and Buddhism as well to give us entirely new ways of viewing how humans use language to make sense of and to make the world Leaders in English Language Arts Education Research, 2023-07-31 Leaders in English Language Arts Education Research contains autobiographical essays by leading English Language Arts scholars throughout the world In this volume English Language Arts is presented as a complex and porous discipline intersecting with writing literacy studies multicultural multilingual education digital and multimodal literacies critical and social justice pedagogies teacher education linguistics and second language learning and not least of all subject English including teaching literature and drama Contributors are retired or current professors in the following countries Australia Canada England Ireland South Africa and the United States ELA scholars often begin their careers as K 12 teachers and then become teacher educators at universities due to this they work at the intersection of theory and practice throughout their careers Therefore this volume will be of interest to undergraduate and graduate English Language Arts Education students as well as to in service English practitioners This volume will also appeal to ELA researchers at all levels since it contains first hand personal narratives of well established ELA researchers as they reflect on their own development as scholars
