Chadderton, Angela Kimyongür, 2017-11-08 In the face of the contested legacy of engagement in the Francophone context this interdisciplinary collection demonstrates that French and Francophone writers artists intellectuals and film makers are using their work to confront unforeseen and unprecedented challenges campaigns and causes in a politically uncertain post 9 11 world Composed of eleven essays and a contextualising introduction this volume is interdisciplinary in its treatment of engagement in a variety of forms as it reassesses the relationship between different types of cultural production and society as it is played out in the twenty first century With a focus on both the development of different cultural forms Part 1 and on the particular crises that have attracted the attention of cultural practitioners Part 2 this volume maps and analyses some of the ways in which cultural texts of all kinds are being used to respond to engage with and challenge crises in the contemporary Francophone world La Revue ,1912 The Crisis of Culture Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2012-12-06

The Developing Canadian Community Samuel Delbert Clark, 1909 Collection of papers and essays concerning the development of Canadian society Includes a chapter on the gold rush society of British Columbia and the Yukon The West-African City Jérôme Chenal, 2014-05-08 Rapid growth unmanageable cities urban crisis macrocephali The cities of west Africa are no longer plannable at least not using traditional urban development tools Without negating the importance of participatory processes in city creation it nonetheless seems crucial to return to city plans and models to what cities convey and how they are built But to understand the city in all its depth and richness we must also hit the streets The West African City proposes a dual perspective At the urban scale it analyses historical trajectories spatial development and urban planning documents to highlight the major trends beyond the plans At the second level that of public space the street is discussed as the city s lifeblood By innovating approaches and testing new methods The West African City offers an unconventional look at Nouakchott Dakar and Abidjan the three study sites for this investigation The city of today in Africa or elsewhere must re examine its many social economic cultural political and spatial dimensions for this urban research has begun challenging its own methods This book is also the companion of Chenal s MOOC African cities The Progressiveness of Modern Christian Thought James Lindsay,1892 Psychopathologie de la défaite et comment s'en sortir
