A knight in red armor, including a helmet with a visor and chainmail collar, holds a sword. The background is a warm, hazy landscape with a forest silhouette at the bottom.

'Shades of David Gemmell . . . It's about time someone good took up the torch for heroic fantasy. Inspiring characters, great plot and culture. I read this in one session, utterly absorbed.'

Gallow: The Anvil Nathan Hawke, 2015-02-26 With the Lhosir king dead and his army slaughtered and drowned on the walls of Varyxhun castle King Valaric knows it s only a matter of time before the forkbeards stop licking their wounds and come at him again and when they do he d better be ready because there s nothing more precious to a forkbeard than his pride And one of the things he needs more than anything else is a working forge to hammer out more arrowhead and spearheads and draw more wire for mail and for a forge he needs tools and an anvil The nearest working forge that has everything he needs is in Issetbridge Issetbridge still occupied by the Lhosir so he d best send someone tough to go and get it and it has to be someone who knows his way around a forge but that s not a problem since it was going to be Gallow anyway his forkbeard smith What he also has is a man on the inside a carter whom the forkbeards of Issetbridge will recognise and might even let pass without trying to murder him It s all good until Gallow s wife Arda points out that half the Lhosir in Issetbridge will recognise Gallow and he s about as subtle and unobtrusive as a smack round the head from a hammer What Valaric really needs is someone who knows their way around a forge but whom the forkbeards won t notice A Marroc not a forkbeard Better still a woman Her Valaric reluctantly agrees What he doesn t know is that Arda and Fenaric the Carter have history and it s not pretty
