Memoirs of Goldoni ... Translated ... by John Black Carlo Goldoni, 1814      Goldoni in Paris Jessica Mary Goodman, 2017 Jessica Goodman sheds new light on Carlo Goldoni's experience as a dramatic author in 1760s Paris and on his critical reactions to that experience. She draws on contemporary Comedie Italienne archives to offer the most comprehensive existing account of this oft-neglected theatre and its authorial relations.

Investigating Gender, Translation and Culture in Italian Studies Monica Boria, Linda Risso, 2007 The past few years have witnessed a growing academic interest in Italian Studies and an increasing number of symposia and scholarly activities. This volume originates from the Society for Italian Studies Postgraduate Colloquia that took place at the University of Leicester and Cambridge in June 2004 and April 2005 respectively. It gathers together articles by young researchers working on various aspects of Italian Studies. It well illustrates current trends in both typical areas of research like literature and high culture and in those which have gained momentum in recent years like translation and language studies. The volume offers a taste of the dynamic outlook of current research in Italian Studies: the interdisciplinary approach of the essays in translation and gender studies and the innovative methodological perspectives and findings offered by the new fields of Italian L2 and ethnography. The book is divided into three sections each grouping contributions by broad subject areas: literature and culture, translation and gender studies, language and linguistics. Cross-fertilizations and interdisciplinary research emerge from several essays and the coherent ensemble constitutes an example of the far-reaching results achieved by current research.

Although today Mozart remains one of the most well-known figures of the period, the era was filled with composers, librettists, writers, and performers who created and developed opera buffa. Among the topics examined are the relationship of Viennese opera buffa to French theatre, Mozart and eighteenth-century comedy, gender, nature, and bourgeois society on Mozart's buffa stage, as well as close analyses of key works such as Don Giovanni and Le nozze di Figaro.
