The Tree of Life Susie Stone,2018-04-07 Reading through my family archives I found the following post In her youth John Crenshaw gave an army sergeant a five dollar gold piece to release her to him I was intrigued I wanted to know what had happened to this couple John Crenshaw and the Cherokee Indian maiden What did this five dollar gold piece play in the story as I read about their lives set in those before and after years of the Civil War I became fascinated with the information that I could piece together to tell the story of two Cheyenne Indian women and their chosen lives through diversity the Civil War and their family my ancestors While I created some parts in fiction to embellish the story the written actions of each resilient woman were true bonded together with the telling of their lives I was proud to write their stories of love and dedication and I began to know them as actual women creating my own tree of life These two women were my great grandmother and great great grandmother I was intrigued to read of their lives and connected them to my own life My father had always told me stories of his Indian grandmother LeAnna Crenshaw Stone and now I had actually found her story Through the archives I enabled her life to be told again Go now to your dwellings to enter into the days of your life together
