full of challenges The three graces can almost be seen as motors for Christian life in today s world but the words faith hope and love have so many everyday uses that their technical theological meanings are for many difficult to appreciate Modern life also leaves many yearning for authenticity and meaning Many religions have answered that need by calling to mind the image of a path Always profound progressions religious paths tend to be motivated either by practices the act of walking the path or focal points Christianity has a focal point an object and it sees the three graces as distinctively content filled The heart of this book is about helping people find the Christian path and their intellectual emotional and spiritual balance an equilibrium that is sustained by a strong personal faith an enduring hope for the future and genuine love that will withstand the worst of times It contributes to the category of Christian literature that provides a pattern for Christian living without surrendering the intellect to the more popular side of this genre How to Be an Adult in Love David Richo,2014-01-07

We were made to love and be loved Loving ourselves and others is in our genetic code It s nothing other than the purpose of our lives but knowing that doesn t make it easy to do We may find it a challenge to love ourselves We may have a hard time letting love in from others We re often afraid of getting hurt It is also sometimes scary for us to share love with those around us and love that isn t shared leaves us feeling flat and unfulfilled David Richo provides the tools here for learning how to love in evolved adult ways beginning with getting past the barriers that keep us from loving ourselves then showing how we can learn to open to love others He provides wisdom from Buddhism psychology and a range of spiritual traditions along with a wealth of practices both for avoiding the pitfalls that can occur in love relationships and for enhancing the way love shows up in our lives He then leads us on to love s inevitable outcome developing a heart that loves universally and indiscriminately This transcendent and unconditional love isn t just for a heroic few Dave shows it s everyone s magnificent calling

How to Be an Adult in Relationships David Richo, 2021-11-02 Most people think of love as a feeling says David Richo but love is not so much a feeling as a way of being present In this book Richo offers a fresh perspective on love and relationships one that focuses not on finding an ideal mate but on becoming a more loving and realistic person Drawing on the Buddhist concept of mindfulness How to Be an Adult in Relationships explores five hallmarks of mindful loving and how they play a key role in our relationships throughout life

- 1 Attention to the present moment observing listening and noticing all the feelings at play in our relationships
- 2 Acceptance of ourselves and others just as we are
- 3 Appreciation of all our gifts our limits our longings and our poignant human predicament
- 4 Affection shown through holding and touching in respectful ways
- 5 Allowing life and love to be just as they are with all their ecstasy and ache without trying to take control

When deeply understood and applied these five simple concepts what Richo calls the five A s form the basis of mature love They help us to move away from judgment fear and blame to a position of openness compassion and realism about life and relationships By giving and receiving these five A s relationships become deeper and more meaningful and they become a ground for personal transformation
