Project Name	Due Date
Project 1	1/15/20
Project 2	2/15/20
Project 3	3/15/20

Key Concepts

Students will learn about the structure and function of the judicial branch.

Structure & Function

The judicial branch is responsible for interpreting the Constitution and laws. It is made up of the Supreme Court and lower federal courts. The Supreme Court is the highest court in the land and has the final say on all legal matters.

The judicial branch also has the power to check the executive and legislative branches. This is done through the process of judicial review, which allows the courts to declare laws or executive actions unconstitutional.

The Supreme Court's Judicial Review

Students will learn about the process of judicial review and its importance in the U.S. government.

Working & Writing

Students will work in groups to research and write about the process of judicial review. They will also be responsible for presenting their findings to the class.

Active Participation

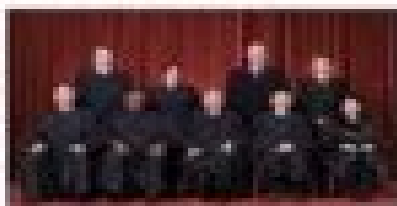

Students will participate in a role-play activity where they will act out the process of judicial review. This will help them understand the process from the perspective of the judges and the parties involved.
