Social Im/mobilities in Africa Joël Noret, 2019-11-08 Grounded in both theory and ethnography this volume insists on taking social positionality seriously when accounting for Africa's current age of polarizing wealth To this end the book advocates a multidimensional view of African societies in which social positions consist of a variety of intersecting social powers or capitals including wealth education social relationships religion ethnicity and others Accordingly the notion of social im/mobilities emphasizes the complexities of current changes taking us beyond the prism of a one dimensional social ladder for social moves cannot always be apprehended through the binaries of gains and losses Ecotheology Levente Hufnagel, 2023-01-11 Ecotheology Sustainability and Religions of the World gives a very interesting overview of the frontiers of scientific research in this important multi and transdisciplinary area Its chapters use ecotheological approaches to discuss the multiple aspects of an environmental crisis from almost every segment of our planet This book will be very useful for everyone researchers teachers students or others interested in the field who would like to gain some insights into this aspect of our culture

Distancing the Past Chana Teeger, 2024-07-02 Winner 2025 Gordon Hirabayashi Human Rights Book Award Sociology of Human Rights Section American Sociological Association Winner 2025 Oliver Cromwell Cox Book Award Section on Racial and Ethnic Minorities American Sociological Association Honorable Mention 2025 Bourdieu Best Book Award Sociology of Education Section American Sociological Association Shortlisted 2025 Barrington Moore Book Award Comparative Historical Sociology Section American Sociological Association Shortlisted 2025 Philip Abrams Memorial Prize British Sociological Association Shortlisted 2025 MSA First Book Award Memory Studies Association Finalist 2024 C Wright Mills Award Society for the Study of Social Problems How are histories of racial oppression dealt with in contexts of diversity Chana Teeger tackles this question by examining how young South Africans born into democracy confront their country's racist apartheid past in high school history lessons Drawing on extensive observational interview and textual data Distancing

the Past vividly chronicles how students learn that racism is a thing of the past even as they experience it in their everyday lives Teegeer shows how teachers desire to avoid conflict between students mirrors a national focus on racial reconciliation leading to the historical distancing of the recent apartheid past This historical distancing allows schools to present a facade of transformation Beneath the surface however the lessons reproduce unequal power relations at school and legitimize inequality at the societal level In documenting these processes Distancing the Past illuminates the subtle reconfiguration of racism in the era of civil liberties It shows how acknowledging the racist past is not enough When the past is remembered but its legacies ignored racism can continue unabated in the present Distancing the Past is a timely account of the remaking of race and inequality in the aftermath of de jure discrimination It offers vital lessons for other societies grappling with their own racist histories
