Administrator and Scholar David J. Bakibinga, 2022-06-17 The autobiography deals with my early life from birth up to my first graduation from Makerere University followed by coverage on my grandparents and parents This is followed by a broad review of my experience abroad covering 13 years in the United Kingdom and Nigeria in the capacities of a student lecturer author and administrator The next chapter deals with the period after my return to Uganda principally settling down teaching at Makerere University serving as Secretary of the Uganda Law Society and working as Commissioner at the Uganda Revenue Authority The following chapter focuses largely on my administrative roles at Makerere University The next chapter is basically a synopsis of my published books This is followed by an account of my work with Busoga Diocese and the Uganda National Academy of Sciences Finally is a brief on my immediate family

Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 1954 Contains the 4th session of the 28th Parliament through the session of the Parliament      Uganda Jörg Wiegratz, Giuliano Martiniello, Elisa Greco, 2018-11-15 For the last three decades Uganda has been one of the fastest growing economies in Africa Globally praised as an African success story and heavily backed by international financial institutions development agencies and bilateral donors the country has become an exemplar of economic and political reform for those who espouse a neoliberal model of development The neoliberal policies and the resulting restructuring of the country have been accompanied by narratives of progress prosperity and modernisation and justified in the name of development But this self celebratory narrative which is critiqued by many in Uganda masks the disruptive social impact of these reforms and silences the complex and persistent crises resulting from neoliberal transformation Bringing together a range of leading scholars on the country this collection represents a timely contribution to the debate around the New Uganda one which confronts the often sanitised and largely depoliticised accounts of the Museveni government and its proponents Harnessing a wealth of empirical materials the contributors offer a critical multi disciplinary analysis of the unprecedented political socio economic cultural and ecological transformations brought about by neoliberal capitalist restructuring since the 1980s The result is the most comprehensive collective study to date of a neoliberal market society in contemporary Africa offering crucial insights for other countries in the Global South

Transforming Research Excellence McLean, Robert ,Tijssen, Robert,Wallace, Matthew L.,Kraemer-Mbula, Erika,2020-01-18 Modern day science is under great pressure A potent mix of increasing expectations limited resources tensions between competition and cooperation and the need for evidence based funding is creating major change in how science is conducted and perceived Amidst this perfect storm is the allure of research excellence a concept that drives decisions made by universities and funders and defines scientists research strategies and career trajectories But what is excellent science And how to recognise it After decades of inquiry and debate there is still no satisfactory answer Are we asking the wrong question Is reality more complex and excellence in science more elusive than many are willing to admit And how should excellence be defined in different parts of the world particularly in lower income countries of the Global South where science is expected to contribute to pressing development issues despite often scarce resources Many wonder whether the Global South is importing with or without consenting the flawed tools for research evaluation from North America and Europe that are not fit for purpose This book takes a critical view of these issues touching on conceptual issues and practical problems that inevitably emerge when excellence is at the center of science systems Emerging from the capacity building work of the Science Granting Councils Initiative in sub Saharan Africa it speaks to scholars as well as to managers and funders of research around the world Confronting sticky problems and uncomfortable truths the chapters contain insights and recommendations that point towards new solutions both for the Global South and the Global North      Interactive Mobile Communication Technologies and Learning Michael E. Auer,Thrasyvoulos Tsiatsos,2018-02-13 Interactive mobile technologies have now become the core of many if not all fields of society Not only do the younger generation of students expect a mobile working and learning environment but also the new ideas technologies and solutions introduced on a nearly daily basis also boost this trend Discussing and assessing key trends in the mobile field were the primary aims of the 11th International Conference on Interactive Mobile Communication Technologies and Learning IMCL2017 which was held in Thessaloniki from 30 November to 01 December 2017 Since being founded in 2006 the conference has been devoted to new approaches in interactive mobile technologies with a focus on learning The IMCL conferences have in the meanwhile become a central forum of the exchange of new research results and relevant trends as well as best practices This book contains papers in the fields of Future Trends and Emerging Mobile Technologies Design and Development of Mobile Learning Apps and Content Mobile Games Gamification and Mobile Learning Adaptive Mobile Environments Augmented Reality and Immersive Applications Tangible Embedded and Embodied Interaction Interactive Collaborative and Blended Learning Digital Technology in Sports Mobile Health Care and Training Multimedia Learning in Music Education 5G Network Infrastructure Case Studies Real World Experiences The content will appeal to a broad readership including policymakers academics educators researchers in pedagogy and learning theory school teachers the learning industry further education lecturers etc

Sharing Higher Education's Promise beyond the Few in Sub-Saharan Africa Peter Darvas, Shang Gao, Yijun Shen, Bilal Bawany, 2017-11-15 Despite a spectacular expansion of the higher education sector in Sub Saharan Africa the supply of tertiary education has generally failed to keep pace with demand and the region continues to lag all other regions in terms of access to tertiary education This is in part a consequence of deeply entrenched patterns of inequitable access to higher education and the perpetuation of what researchers refer to as elite systems To date access to tertiary education in Sub Saharan Africa has unduly benefitted students drawn from the region's wealthiest households and overall enrollment remains disproportionately male and metropolitan These factors stifle the catalytic potential of higher education corroding its potential for driving economic growth and sustaining poverty reduction Instead patterns of access to tertiary education have generally reinforced and reproduced social inequality instead of eroding its pernicious social and economic effects This report aims to inform an improved understanding of equity in tertiary enrollment in Sub Saharan African countries and to examine the extent to which inequity functions as a bottleneck inhibiting the ability of African universities to effectively drive improvements in overall quality of life and economic competitiveness In our survey of the evidence we also aim to identify which policies most effectively address the challenge of promoting equity of access in SSA tertiary education systems In order to achieve these objectives the report collects generates and analyzes empirical evidence on patterns of equity examines the underlying causes of inequity and evaluates government policies for addressing inequity
