Contemporary European Playwrights Maria M. Delgado, Bryce Lease, Dan Rebellato, 2020-07-22 Contemporary European Playwrights presents and discusses a range of key writers that have radically reshaped European theatre by finding new ways to express the changing nature of the continent's society and culture and whose work is still in dialogue with Europe today Traversing borders and languages this volume offers a fresh approach to analyzing plays in production by some of the most widely performed European playwrights assessing how their work has revealed new meanings and theatrical possibilities as they move across the continent building an unprecedented picture of the contemporary European repertoire With chapters by leading scholars and contributions by the writers themselves the chapters bring playwrights together to examine their work as part of a network and genealogy of writing examining how these plays embody and interrogate the nature of contemporary Europe Written for students and scholars of European theatre and playwriting this book will leave the reader with an understanding of the shifting relationships between the subsidized and commercial the alternative and the mainstream stage and political stakes of playmaking in European theatre since 1989

The Historical Novel, Transnationalism, and the Postmodern Era Susan Brantly, 2017-02-17 This volume explores the genre of the historical novel and the variety of ways in which writers choose to represent the past How does an author's nationality or gender impact their artistic choices To what extent can historical novels appeal to a transnational audience This study demonstrates how histories can communicate across national borders often by invoking or deconstructing the very notion of nationhood Furthermore it traces how the concerns of the postmodern era such as postmodern critiques of historiography colonialism identity and the Enlightenment have impacted the genre of the historical novel and shows this impact has not been uniform throughout Western culture Not all historical novels written during the postmodern era are postmodern The historical novel as a genre occupies a problematic yet significant space in Cold War literary currents torn between claims of authenticity and the impossibility of accessing the past Historical novels from England America Germany and France are compared and contrasted with historical novels from Sweden testing a variety of theoretical perspectives in the process This pitting of a center against a periphery serves to highlight traits that historical novels from the West have in common but also how they differ The historical novel is not just a local regional phenomenon but has become during the postmodern era a transnational tool for exploring how we should think of nations and nationalism and what a society should or should not look like

Transforming Otherness Peter Nynas, 2017-07-28 Today people in different situations and contexts face intercultural challenges These are a result of increasing mobility Sometimes such challenges are brought about by crisis situations and an international labor market However people also come in contact with each other through forms of new technology such as the Internet and through literature and film In these multicultural encounters misunderstandings and sometimes clashes are experienced This volume presents studies in culture communication and language all of which strive through a variety of theoretical perspectives to develop understanding of such challenges and perhaps offer practical solutions Encountering otherness may evoke fears negative attitudes and a corresponding will to dismiss the otherness in front of us either consciously or unconsciously This denial of otherness may also be subtle Thinking about otherness as described in this volume also raises questions about how otherness is represented and mediated and about the possible role of third parties in facilitating communication in such situations Sometimes a third party can play a crucial role in facilitating the communication process and serve as a channel of communication Trust in humanity as a bridge to community requires a subtle balance between representations of self and other Various problems arise in intercultural mediation which may be caused by cultural and political differences and these are sometimes used to validate stereotypical beliefs and images The editors argue that in both academic and art circles European perspectives have widely been understood as universal

Culture and Customs of Sweden Byron J. Nordstrom, 2010-07-01 This work is an in depth look at many aspects of contemporary Swedish customs and culture that ties today's nation to an understanding of its history Culture and Customs of Sweden is an ideal introduction to this fascinating nation The book opens with a broad overview of the country and then examines specific themes such as religion marriage family gender issues education holidays popular customs sports and leisure media literature performing arts art and architecture Throughout the author seeks to strike a balance between the history of these many aspects of contemporary Sweden and what is happening there today at a time when Sweden is undergoing many profound changes For example the chapter on literature looks at both the development of Swedish literature since the Middle Ages and at current interests themes and writers Each of the themes covered is central to introducing both Sweden's past and its present facilitating the kind of understanding that is so important in this ever shrinking world

Transcultural Modernities Elisabeth Bekers, Sissy Helff, Daniela Merolla, 2009 The swelling flows of migration from Africa towards Europe have aroused interest not only in the socio political consequences of the migrants insistent appeals to fortress Europe but also in the artistic integration of African migrants into the cultural world of Europe While in recent years the creative output of Africans living in Europe has received attention from the media and in academia little critical consideration has been given to African migrants modes of narration and the manner in which these modes give expression to or are an expression of their creators transcultural realities Transcultural Modernities Narrating Africa in Europe responds to this need for reflection by examining the manner in which migrants compose and negotiate their Euro African affiliations in their narratives The book brings together scholars in the fields of literary and art criticism cultural studies and anthropology for an extensive interdisciplinary exchange on the specific modes of narration displayed in Euro African literatures the visual arts and cinema as well as offering ethnographic case studies The result is a wide range of reflections on how African artists writers and ordinary people living in Europe experience and explore their transcultural and or postcolonial environments and how their experiences and explorations in turn contribute to the construction of modern Euro African life worlds 'Illegal' Traveller S. Khosravi,2010-04-14 Based on fieldwork among undocumented immigrants and asylum seekers Illegal Traveller offers a narrative of the polysemic nature of borders border politics and rituals and performances of border crossing Interjecting personal experiences into ethnographic writing it is a form of self narrative that places the self within a social context The Routledge Handbook of Literary Translingualism Steven G. Kellman,Natasha Lvovich,2021-09-30 Though it might seem as modern as Samuel Beckett Joseph Conrad and Vladimir Nabokov translingual writing texts by authors using more than one language or a language other than their primary one has an ancient pedigree The Routledge Handbook of Literary Translingualism aims to provide a comprehensive overview of translingual literature in a wide variety of languages throughout the world from ancient to modern times The volume includes sections on translingual genres with chapters on memoir poetry fiction drama and cinema ancient medieval and modern translingualism global perspectives chapters overseeing European African and Asian languages Combining chapters from lead specialists in the field this volume will be of interest to scholars graduate students and advanced undergraduates interested in investigating the vibrant area of translingual literature Attracting scholars from a variety of disciplines this interdisciplinary and pioneering Handbook will advance current scholarship of the permutations of languages among authors throughout time Migration and Literature S. Frank,2008-09-29 Migration and Literature offers a thought provoking analysis of the thematic and formal role of migration in four contemporary and canonized novelists

The Composition of Anthropology Morten Nielsen,Nigel Rapport,2017-12-14 How do anthropologists write their texts What is the nature of creativity in the discipline of anthropology This book follows anthropologists into spaces where words ideas and arguments take shape and explores the steps in a creative process In a unique examination of how texts come to be composed the editors bring together a distinguished group of anthropologists who offer valuable insight into their writing habits These reflexive glimpses into personal creativity reveal not only the processes by which theory and ethnography come in particular cases to be represented on the page but also supply examples that students may follow or adapt The World Between Two Covers: Reading the Globe Ann Morgan,2015-05-04 A beguiling exploration of the joys of reading across boundaries inspired by the author's year long journey through a book from every country Ann Morgan writes in the opening of this delightful book I glanced up at my bookshelves the proud record of more than twenty years of reading and found a host of English and North American greats starting down at me I had barely touched a work by a foreign language author in years The awful truth dawned I was a literary xenophobe Prompted to read a book translated into English from each of the world's 195 UN recognized countries plus Taiwan and one extra Ann sought out classics folktales current favorites and commercial triumphs novels short stories memoirs and countless mixtures of all these things The world between two covers the world to which Ann introduces us with affection and no small measure of wit is a world rich in the kind of narratives that engage us passionately we meet an irreverent junk food obsessed heroine in Kuwait an explorer from Togo who spent years

among the Inuit in Greenland and a former child circus performer of Roma background seeking sanctuary in Switzerland Ann's quest explores issues that affect us all personal political national and global What is cultural heritage How do we define national identity Is it possible to overcome censorship and propaganda And above all why and how should we read from other cultures languages and traditions Illuminating and inspiring The World Between Two Covers welcomes us into the global community of stories

Temporalities and Subjectivities in Migration Literature in Europe Jopi Nyman, Johan Schimanski, Carmen Zamorano Llena, 2024-09-23 Temporalities and Subjectivities in Migration Literature in Europe examines migrant stories through the lens of temporality as seen in the role of such issues as integration waiting detention trauma crisis and imagined futures This book argues that a focus on different time scales and perceptions of time will help us understand how the intimate and affective subjectivities of more complex narratives of migration as articulated in literature cross into the public sphere and challenge political bubbles This collection showcases new approaches to and innovative readings of different forms of literary and cultural migration narratives In addition to developing theoretical tools for the study the authors present innovative case studies addressing topics such as the European refugee crisis migration narratives and border crossings in Britain Spain and Morocco as well as experiences of migration in Finland and Norway

Introduction to Nordic Cultures Annika Lindskog, Jakob Stougaard-Nielsen, 2020-04-17 Introduction to Nordic Cultures is an innovative interdisciplinary introduction to Nordic history cultures and societies from medieval times to today The textbook spans the whole Nordic region covering historical periods from the Viking Age to modern society and engages with a range of subjects from runic inscriptions on iron rings and stone monuments via eighteenth century scientists Ibsen's dramas and turn of the century travel to twentieth century health films and the welfare state nature ideology Greenlandic literature Nordic Noir migration new Scandinavians and stereotypes of the Nordic The chapters provide fundamental knowledge and insights into the history and structures of Nordic societies while constructing critical analyses around specific case studies that help build an informed picture of how societies grow and of the interplay between history politics culture geography and people Introduction to Nordic Cultures is a tool for understanding issues related to the Nordic region as a whole offering the reader engaging and stimulating ways of discovering a variety of cultural expressions historical developments and local preoccupations The textbook is a valuable resource for undergraduate students of Scandinavian and Nordic studies as well as students of European history culture literature and linguistics

Literature, Language, and Multiculturalism in Scandinavia and the Low Countries Wolfgang Behschnitt, Sarah De Mul, Liesbeth Minnaard, 2013-11-05 Literature Language and Multiculturalism in Scandinavia and the Low Countries presents a ground breaking comparative approach to the study of multicultural literature Focusing on the development of migration literature in Sweden Denmark Flanders and the Netherlands the volume argues that the political and institutional preconditions for the development of multicultural literatures are still given within the frame of the nation state As a consequence both the field of migration literature and the multi lingual quality of literary texts are shaped differently in each state and in each language area The volume delineates the development of multicultural literature in Scandinavia and the Low Countries as a function of the specific language situations in these countries as well as the various political institutional and discursive contexts This book not only offers a comprehensive theoretical and methodological analysis of multilingualism and multicultural literature but also provides overviews sketching the discourse on multiculturalism language and the development of the literary field in Sweden Denmark the Netherlands and Flanders Besides it presents a broad range of in depth analyses of selected literary texts from each of these countries

The Palgrave Handbook of European Migration in Literature and Culture

Corina Stan,Charlotte Sussman,2023-11-20 The Palgrave Handbook of European Migration in Literature and Culture engages with migration to within and from Europe foregrounding migration through the lenses of historical migratory movement and flows associated with colonialism and postcolonialism With essays on literature film drama graphic novels and more the book addresses migration and media hostile environments migration and language migration and literary experiment migration as palimpsest and figurations of the migrant Each section is introduced by one of the handbook s contributing editors and interviews with writers and film directors are integrated throughout the volume The essays collected in the volume move beyond the discourse of the refugee crisis to trace the historical roots of the current migration situation through colonialism and decolonization
