Sarshar, 2014-09-17 Living continuously in Iran for over 2700 years Jews have played an integral role in the history of the country Frequently understood as a passive minority group and often marginalized by the Zoroastrian and succeeding

Muslim hegemony the Jews of Iran are instead portrayed in this book as having had an active role in the development of Iranian history society and culture Examining ancient texts objects and art from a wide range of times and places throughout Iranian history as well as the medieval trade routes along which these would have travelled The Jews of Iran offers in depth analysis of the material and visual culture of this community Additionally an exploration of modern novels and accounts of Jewish Iranian women's experiences sheds light on the social history and transformations of the Jews of Iran from the rule of Cyrus the Great c 600 530 BCE to the Iranian Revolution of 1978 9 and onto the present day By using the examples of women writers such as Gina Barkhordar Nahai and Dalia Sofer the implications of fictional representation of the history of the Jews of Iran and the vital importance of communal memory and tradition to this community are drawn out By examining the representation of identity construction through lenses of religion gender and ethnicity the analysis of these writers work highlights how the writers undermine the popular imagining and imaging of the Jewish other in an attempt to create a new narrative integrating the Jews of Iran into the idea of what it means to be Iranian This long view of the Jewish cultural influence on Iran's social economic political and cultural development makes this book a unique contribution to the field of Judeo Iranian studies and to the study of Iranian history more broadly Cry Of The Peacock Gina B. This book will be vital for researchers of Middle Eastern literature and its relationship with writings from the West as well as those interested in the cultural history of Half/Life Laurel Snyder, 2006-03-23 Written by authors born into the so called dilemma of intermarriage the Middle East the stories in Half Life explore the experience of being raised in a half Jewish home Though each essay is distinct and the experiences are vastly different each describes growing up without a streamlined identity unsure of community or religious direction From Jenny Traig whose experiences led her to extreme devotion in the form of religious obsessive compulsion scrupulosity to Thisbe Nissen who finally felt Jewish after discovering a rosary in her boyfriend s sock drawer these authors examine the complicated relationships they felt with the Jewish community and the world at large By turns tragic and funny religious and heartbreaking angry and surprisingly familiar Half Life represents the altogether diverse memories and reflections of a handful of men and women who have spent a lifetime grappling with how to define themselves or not Resulting from that struggle is a complex exploration and some truly brilliant prose The Iranian Diaspora Mohsen Mostafavi Mobasher, 2018-10-03 The Iranian revolution of 1978 1979 uprooted and globally dispersed an enormous number of Iranians from all walks of life Bitter political relations between Iran and the West have since caused those immigrants to be stigmatized marginalized and politicized which in turn has discredited and distorted Iranian migrants social identity subjected them to various subtle and overt forms of prejudice discrimination and social injustice and pushed them to the edges of their host societies. The Iranian Diaspora presents the first global overview of Iranian migrants experiences since the revolution highlighting the similarities and differences in their experiences of adjustment and integration in North America Europe Australia and the Middle East Written by leading scholars of the Iranian diaspora the original essays in this volume seek to understand and describe how Iranians in diaspora re define and maintain their ethno national identity and re construct and preserve Iranian culture They also explore the integration challenges the Iranian immigrants experience in a very negative context of reception Combining theory and case studies as well as a variety of methodological strategies and disciplinary perspectives the essays offer needed insights into some of the most urgent and consequential issues and problem areas of immigration studies including national ethnic and racial identity construction dual citizenship and dual nationality maintenance familial and religious transformation politics of citizenship integration ethnic and cultural maintenance in diaspora and the link between politics and the integration of immigrants particularly Muslim immigrants Dislocation. Writing, and Identity in Australian and Persian Literature Hasti Abbasi,2018-08-25 This study aims to foreground key literary works in Persian and Australian culture that deal with the representation of exile and dislocation Through cultural and literary analysis Dislocation Writing and Identity in Australian and Persian Literature investigates the influence of dislocation on self perception and the remaking of connections both through the act of writing and the attempt to transcend social conventions Examining writing and identity in David Malouf's An Imaginary Life 1978 Iranian Diaspora Literature and Shahrnush Parsipur s Women Without Men 1989 Eng 1998 Hasti Abbasi provides a literary analysis of dislocation with its social and psychological manifestations Abbasi reveals how the exploration of exile dislocation as a narrative that needs to be investigated through imagination and meditation provides a mechanism for creative writing practice
