- As a result, the impact of the 2008 financial crisis on the global economy was significant. The crisis led to a sharp decline in global economic growth, with many countries experiencing recession. The impact was particularly severe in the United States, where the economy contracted by 4.3% in 2008 and 2009. The crisis also led to a loss of confidence in the financial system, which resulted in a credit crunch and a sharp decline in stock prices. The global financial crisis was a major event in the history of the world, and its impact is still felt today.
