David P. Moxley

Focused Goal Guide Human Interviewing Sage Services:

Family Assessment Adele Holman, 1983-06 A practical guide for human service workers and students which describes and shows techniques for use in assessing families The author reviews a conceptual basis of family assessment in chapters that focus on the family as a system the family and its environment and the family life cycle She goes on to describe such methods of assessment as the ecomap the genogram family sculpture and the use of observation and checklists Throughout the guide case examples are used to illustrate concepts and show the techniques in use A special feature of particular value is the self teaching exercises designed to give the reader practice in applying these ideas and methods A concluding chapter relates family assessment to treatment or intervention Journal of Human Services Abstracts, 1980 Practice of Case Management David P. Moxley, 1989 The Practice of Case Management in the Human Services offers a succinct yet comprehensive guide to carrying out a case manager's responsibilities The author explores assessment of the service needs of the client facilitating the client's contact with the appropriate institutions and services monitoring the quality of services provided to the client and taking action when the client's needs are not met He also considers the therapeutic role required when needs are not met because the problems are indigenous to the client Providing an integrated look at practice technologies applicable to a variety of practice areas the volume is appropriate for both preservice and inservice education in the field of human service Understand Social Agency Armand Lauffer, 1984-11 This revised and expanded Second Edition of the widely read Understanding Your Social Agency offers students and practitioners a simple yet comprehensive introduction to organizational theory and its meaning for social agencies Each of the first ten chapters is devoted to a particular perspective for understanding the agency The final chapter considers using each of the ten perspectives independently or in tandem to solve problems within or on behalf of the agency It will be a useful guide to solving problems of an organizational nature within an agency Measuring the Performance of Human Service Programs Lawrence L. Martin, Peter M. Kettner, 2010 Government and nongovernmental human service organizations are under increasing pressure to demonstrate that their programs work As stakeholders demand more accountability human service organizations are increasingly utilizing performance accountability and performance measurement as a way of demonstrating the efficiency quality and effectiveness of their programs Measuring the Performance of Human Service Programs Second Edition examines the reasons why performance measurement has become the major method of performance accountability today In this second edition of their classic work Martin Kettner explain in detail how to develop and utilize output quality and outcome performance measures in human service programs Special attention is given to the four types of outcome performance measures numeric counts standardized measures level of functioning LOF scales and client satisfaction Creating Small Scale Social Programs Barbara Schram, 1997-10-14 Built around a single case study Creating New Agency Programs clearly illustrates how to effectively plan implement and evaluate a small scale social program Each step in the planning process is introduced and described in a way that allows the reader to vicariously participate in the evolution of the program Useful charts time lines and resource lists are included and can be easily referenced and utilized This book s emphasis on planning is important not only because it is a much used and generally under taught skill but because successful planning is the process that can turn the dreams of a community into concrete reality This book is geared toward designing programs to meet specific social needs and organizing the relevant and human resources to implement them The programs are specific detail and activity oriented but are designed to support long range goals which may be handed down by a parent organization or the community in general The author s strategy of using a case study serves as a creative learning tool that leads readers through each practical step toward successfully creating their own small scale social program Filling the void of literature on designing programs Creating New Agency Programs is ideal for professionals and students in a variety fields social work human services clinical counseling psychology drugs and alcohol psychology nursing and management who are faced with the task of planning designing and evaluating a program Bibliographic Guide to Psychology New York Public Library. Research Libraries,1998 Introduction to Human Factors Nancy J. Stone,Alex Chaparro,Joseph R.

Keebler,Barbara S. Chaparro,Daniel S. McConnell,2024-12-26 This textbook comprehensively introduces readers to the cutting edge field of human factors psychology offering real world examples illustrating how experimental findings can be used to improve the design of tools and environments that we use every day The revised second edition provides updated text examples pedagogical boxes and references Features Showcases pedagogical boxes that end with thought questions to encourage student processing and application of the material Includes instructor materials such as PowerPoint slides activities and exam items to facilitate teaching for instructors who are new to the course Presents theoretical and practical implications of applying psychology to design with the use of examples Discusses anthropometric tools anthropometric data collection methods hand biomechanics and hand tools Highlights diversity and inclusion with applications to the special population section in each chapter Introduction to Human Factors is an ideal read for senior undergraduate and graduate students in the fields of ergonomics human factors and psychology Online teaching resources accompany this textbook including PowerPoints a test bank with answers and an end of chapter questions and answers key for the instructors

Proposal Writing Soraya M. Coley,Cynthia A. Scheinberg,2008 This book is written primarily for students or beginning to moderately experienced grantwriters working in nonprofit corporations school districts or city or county agencies and provides a step by step guide to writing a successful grant proposal The third edition has been retitled Proposal Writing The New Grantsmanship and Funding Strategies because the authors have broadened their scope while still maintaining the aspects that made the previous editions bestsellers A new organization provides greater coherence and logic in the presentation of the chapters Throughout the book readers are presented with agency organizational analyses using a conceptual framework that is tied to a theoretical perspective about the desired outcomes This framework provides the coherence for the book and assists individuals with the mechanics of writing and challenges them to understand why a particular strategy and with what desired and measurable outcome are they seeking The book also conveys the new grantsmanship which is essential for navigating the economic political and social dimensions of proposal and grant writing
