Health Education and Promotion Diana Karczmarczyk, Sara T. Pappa, 2024-08-30 This comprehensive textbook provides students with an accessible overview of both the key concepts and practical skills required to work in the field of health education and promotion. Primarily aligned with the core competencies identified by the National Health Education Commission Inc Areas of Responsibility and designed as ideal preparation for those taking the Certified Health Education Specialist CHES examination, this book offers both the theoretical foundations and practical skills required to fulfill a range of roles. From program planning and evaluation to communication and leadership, each chapter details best practices based on the latest research as well as case studies to show its application in multiple settings. Each chapter is also supported by discussion questions and activities to enable students to engage further with the content. This is an essential text for students taking a range of courses in health promotion, education and planning as well as those preparing for the CHES examination.

The Process of Community Health Education and Promotion Eva I. Doyle, Susan E. Ward, Jody Early, 2018-10-25 Health education promotes lifestyles and environments that enhance health, wellness and quality of life for individuals and communities. This goal serves as the cornerstone of The Process of Community Health Education and Promotion Third Edition. The authors provide readers a comprehensive introduction to the information, perspectives and competencies they will need to successfully promote health in community, school, workplace and health care settings. Rooted in an interprofessional paradigm, the importance of collaborative partnerships is explored throughout the text. The latest edition sparks critical thinking, discussion and action by including real world examples and engaging questions. A strong emphasis on social determinants and their influence shapes the updated section on health equity which ends with a discussion on essential elements for promoting this universal human right. Special features highlighted throughout this action oriented book showcase the authors' experiential learning approach. For Your Information boxes complement and expand on chapter content. For Your Application prompts provide a variety of self directed or instructor guided activities. Additionally, appendices include a community assessment project guide and a professional e portfolio guide to which many of the activities in the book build toward.
