

The background of the entire cover is a photograph of a winter forest. A path of snow leads from the foreground into the distance, flanked by tall, thin trees. The ground is covered in a thick layer of snow, and the trees are also dusted with snow. In the far distance, a bright light source, likely the sun or moon, is visible through the trees, casting long, soft shadows across the snow. The overall color palette is dominated by cool blues and purples, with a warm golden glow from the light source in the distance.
