Making Europe People Politics And Culture Volume 1:

The Politics of the Past: The Representation of the Ancient Empires by Iran's Modern States Maryam

Dezhamkhooy, Leila Papoli-Yazdi, 2018-12-31 This book examines the highly problematic politics of the past surrounding the archaeology of ancient empires in Iran. Discussing their personal and professional experiences, the authors exemplify the real ethical dilemmas that archaeologists confront in the Middle East, calling for reflectivity and awareness among the archaeologists of the region. Dictionary of the Politics of the People's Republic of China Colin Mackerras, Donald H.

McMillen, Andrew Watson, 2003-12-16 As China's political and economic development comes under closer scrutiny, this Dictionary will prove invaluable to anyone with an interest in contemporary China. As well as proving valuable to students and academics of political science, economics, history, and Asian studies, it will be of use to government officials, business people, and media professionals with current or future connections in the region. The main topics covered by the Dictionary are major political processes and events, key issues in domestic policy, China's evolving foreign policy environment, key political personalities, major political institutions and groupings, important aspects of the legal system. Witchcraft and Magic in Europe, Volume 5 Marijke Gijswijt-Hofstra, 1999-01-01

The end of the eighteenth century saw the end of the witch trials everywhere. This volume charts the processes and reasons for the decriminalisation of witchcraft but also challenges the widespread assumption that Europe has been disenchanted. For the first time, surveys are given of the social role of witchcraft in European communities down to the end of the nineteenth century and of the continued importance of witchcraft and magic as topics of debate among intellectuals and other writers. Changing European Identities Glynis Marie Breakwell, Evanthia Lyons, 1996

The political structure of Europe has changed and continues to do so. The changing allegiances of the populations of Europe pose problems and challenges for social psychological theory. Changing European Identities explores these issues using social identity theory and alternative models such as alienation theory and representational identity theory. It provides a highly topical and relevant context for exploring the validity and limits of current theories. Providing a valuable new perspective on people's reactions to change in Europe, it will be useful for advanced scholars in psychology and other social and political sciences. Britishness Since 1870 Paul Ward, 2004-04-15

Examines the definition and redefinition of Britishness since the 1870s and looks at how Britishness has adapted to changing circumstances over time. Global Connections: Volume 1, To 1500 John Coatsworth, Juan Cole, Michael P. Hanagan, Peter C. Perdue, Charles Tilly, Louise Tilly, 2015-03-16

Wilson, 2020-12-22 One of the problems facing Europe is that the building of institutional Europe and top down efforts to get Europeans to imagine their common identity do not necessarily result in political and cultural unity Anthropologists have been slow to consider the difficulties presented by the expansion of the EU model and its implications for Europe in the 21st Century Representing a new trend in European anthropology this book examines how people adjust to their different experiences of the new Europe The role of culture religion and ideology as well as insiders social and professional practices are all shown to shed light on the cultural logic sustaining the institutions and policies of the European Union On the one hand the activities of the European institutions in Brussels illustrate how people of many different nationalities languages and cultures can live and work together On the other hand the interests of many people at the local regional and national levels are not the same as the Eurocrats Contributors explore the issues of unity and diversity in Europe building through various European institutions images and programmes and their effects on a variety of definitions of identity in such locales as France Denmark the United Kingdom Ireland and Belgium Political Engagement of the Young in Europe Peter Thijssen, Jessy Siongers, Jeroen Van Laer, Jacques Haers, Sara Mels, 2015-12-14

Although many scholars are convinced of the apparent civic disengagement of youth others suggest that civic participation of young people is stable and increasingly expressed through non institutionalized forms of practicing politics This book makes a key contribution to this discussion by asking whether the decline or shift paradigm is sufficient in understanding political participation of the youth It argues that we need to move beyond this framework and develop a renewed reflection on the meaning of civic and political engagement It asks crucial questions such as How can the young be educated into assuming civic and political responsibility Why and how do young people engage in social and political action How do the principal mediating institutions education media and the family contribute to new or different forms of youth civic engagement This text contains contributions from acknowledged specialists such as Constance Flanagan Mark Elchardus Marc Hooghe and Bert Klandermans and will be of key interest to students and scholars of youth and young citizens civic political involvement European politics youth studies sociology political participation and electoral behaviour America's History, Volume 1:

Performing Atheist Selves in Digital Publics Evelina Lundmark, 2023-02-24 This book considers how the non religious self is performed publicly online and how digital culture and technology shapes this process Building on a YouTube case study with women vloggers it presents unique empirical data on non organized atheism in the United States Lundmark suggests that the atheist self as performed online exists in tension between a perception of atheism as sinful and amoral in relation to hegemonical Christianity in the U S and the hyperrational male centered discourse that has characterized the atheist movement She argues that women atheist vloggers co effect third spaces of emotive resonance that enable a precarious counterpublicness of performing atheist visibility The volume offers a valuable contribution to the discussion of how the public the private and areas in between are understood within digital religion and opens up new space for engaging with the increased visibility of atheist identity in a mediatized society
