Mestizaje And Globalization Transformations Of Identity And Power:

Mestizaje and Globalization Stefanie Wickstrom, Philip D. Young, 2014-11-20 Mestizaje and Globalization contributes to an emerging multidisciplinary effort to explore how identities are imposed negotiated and reconstructed The volume offers a comprehensive and empirically diverse collection of insights that look beyond nationalistic mestizaje projects to a diversity of local concepts understandings and resistance with particular attention to cases in Latin America and the United States

Mestizaje and Globalization Stefanie Wickstrom, Philip D. Young, 2014-11-20 The Spanish word mestizaje does not easily translate into English Its meaning and significance have been debated for centuries since colonization by European powers began Its simplest definition is mixing As long as the term has been employed norms and ideas about racial and cultural relations in the Americas have been imagined imposed questioned rejected and given new meaning Mestizaje and Globalization presents perspectives on the underlying transformation of identity and power associated with the term during times of great change in the Americas The volume offers a comprehensive and empirically diverse collection of insights concerning mestizaje s complex relationship with indigeneity the politics of ethnic identity transnational social movements the aesthetic of cultural production development policies and capitalist globalization with particular attention to cases in Latin America and the United States Beyond the narrow and often inadequate meaning of mestizaje as biological and racial mixing the concept deserves an innovative theoretical consideration due to its multidimensional multifaceted character and its resilience as an ideological construct The contributors argue that historical analyses of mestizaje do not sufficiently understand contemporary ways that racism ethnic discrimination and social injustice intermingle with current discourse and practice of cultural recognition and multiculturalism in the Americas Mestizaje and Globalization contributes to an emerging multidisciplinary effort to explore how identities are imposed negotiated and reconstructed The chapter authors clearly set forth the issues and obstacles that indigenous peoples and subjugated minorities face as well as the strategies they have employed to gain empowerment in the face of globalization

Transatlantic, Transcultural, and Transnational Dialogues on Identity, Culture, and Migration Lori Celaya, Sonja Stephenson Watson, 2021-11-04 Transatlantic Transcultural and Transnational Dialogues on Identity Culture and Migration analyzes the diasporic experiences of migratory and postcolonial subjects through the lenses of cultural studies critical race theory narrative theory and border studies These narratives cover the United States the U S Mexico border the Hispanophone Caribbean and the Iberian Peninsula and illustrate a shared diasporic experience across the Atlantic Through a transatlantic transcultural and transnational lens this volume brings together essays on literature film and music from disparate geographic areas Spain Cuba and Jamaica the U S Mexico border and Colombia Throughout the volume the contributors explore intertextual transatlantic dialogues and migratory experiences of diasporic subjects and queer subjectivities The chapters also examine the use of language to preserve Latinx culture colonial and Spanish cultural exchanges border identities and race gender identity and cultural production In turn these diasporic experiences result from transatlantic transcultural and transnational phenomena that converge in a globalized society and aid in questioning the artificial boundaries of nation states

Representations of China in Latin American Literature (1987-2016) Maria Montt Strabucchi, 2023-11-15 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library as part of the Opening the Future project with COPIM

Representations of China in Latin American Literature 1987-2016 analyses contemporary Latin American novels in which China is the main theme Using China as a multidimensional term it explores how the novels both highlight and undermine assumptions about China that have shaped Latin America's understanding of China and shows China to be a kind of literary imaginary third term which reframes Latin American discourses of alterity On one level it argues that these texts play with the way that China stands in as a wandering signifier and as a metonym for Asia a gesture that essentialises it as an unchanging other On another level it argues that the novels' employment of China resists essentialist constructions of identity China is thus shown to be serving as a concept which allows for criticism of the construction of fetishized otherness and of the exclusion inherent in essentialist discourses of identity The book presents and analyses the depiction of an imaginary of China which is arguably performative but which discloses the tropes and themes which may be both established and subverted in the novels Chapter One examines the way in which China is represented and constructed in Latin American novels where this country is a setting for their stories The novels studied in Chapter Two are linked to the presence of Chinese communities in Latin America The final chapter examines novels whose main theme is travel to contemporary China Ultimately in the novels studied in this book China serves as a concept through which essentialist notions of identity are critiqued

Urban Mountain Beings Kathleen S. Fine-Dare, 2019-12-04 Urban Mountain Beings is an ethnographic and historically grounded study of recognition strategies and ethnogenesis carried out on the flanks of Mt Pichincha in Quito Ecuador Kathleen S Fine Dare employs feminist geographical and Indigenous pedagogical frameworks to illustrate how histories of exclusion have created attitudes and policies that treat Native peoples as out of place and time in cities Fine Dare concentrates on two overlapping contexts for Indigenous vindication the Yumbada of Cotacollao an ancestral performance through which mountain and other spirits are called into the urban plaza and Casa Kinde Hummingbird House a cultural organization that engages in workshops filmmaking photography commerce community education and the formation of alliances with anthropologists activists filmmakers engineers and teachers

Political Struggle in Latin America Craig L. Arceneaux, 2022-09-23 This book discusses in an accessible way how emerging globalizing processes are setting the stage for new forms of social and political struggle in Latin America with increased involvement of multilateral and foreign actors and impacts of global political populism and populist social media These are opening up new strategies and opportunities for activists and offer new arenas of contestation for international organizations The book analyzes the struggles of select marginalized groups specifically the urban poor indigenous groups women's and LGBTQ groups and the vulnerable middle classes Each case is examined in the context of a distinct struggle for citizenship identity inclusion and or the rule of law The study offers a broad historical analysis of the region through the context of these struggles It tackles some of the most pressing issues surrounding the current politics of Latin America including identity politics cultural appropriation social mobilization and protest neoliberal reform reproductive rights and sexual autonomy corruption the influence of religion and patriarchy crime and social justice inequality and poverty the informal economy and urban exclusion In doing so it details not only how these are not new struggles but also how they have evolved over time In the contemporary period the book explores how the actors as well as character of their struggle are changing through a globalized interchange of ideas and processes The book covers a wide geographical area in Latin America with a particular focus on countries with Spanish or Portuguese colonial backgrounds and is for researchers students and laypersons interested in new globalizing forces affecting Latin American society and polity

Gastropolitics and the Specter of Race María Elena García,2021-03-15 In recent years

Peru has transformed from a war torn country to a global high end culinary destination Connecting chefs state agencies global capital and Indigenous producers this gastronomic revolution makes powerful claims food unites Peruvians dissolves racial antagonisms and fuels development Gastropolitics and the Specter of Race critically evaluates these claims and tracks the emergence of Peruvian gastropolitics a biopolitical and aesthetic set of practices that reinscribe dominant racial and gendered orders Through critical readings of high end menus and ethnographic analysis of culinary festivals guinea pig production and national branding campaigns this work explores the intersections of race species and capital to reveal links between gastronomy and violence in Peru

Hemispheric Indigeneities Miléna Santoro,Erick D. Langer,2018-11-01

Hemispheric Indigeneities is a critical anthology that brings together indigenous and nonindigenous scholars specializing in the Andes Mesoamerica and Canada The overarching theme is the changing understanding of indigeneity from first contact to the contemporary period in three of the world s major regions of indigenous peoples Although the terms indio indig ne and indian only exist in Spanish French and English respectively because of European conquest and colonization indigenous peoples have appropriated or changed this terminology in ways that reflect their shifting self identifications and aspirations As the essays in this volume demonstrate this process constantly transformed the relation of Native peoples in the Americas to other peoples and the state This volume s presentation of various factors geographical temporal and cross cultural provide illuminating contributions to the burgeoning field of hemispheric indigenous studies Hemispheric Indigeneities explores indigenous agency and shows that what it means to be indigenous was and is mutable It also demonstrates that self identification evolves in response to the relationship between indigenous peoples and the state The contributors analyze the conceptions of what indigeneity meant means today or could come to mean tomorrow
