Denham, 2016-06-22 The great Canadian literary critic and humanist Northrop Frye taught at Victoria College University of Toronto for fifty three years Remembering Northrop Frye 2011 brought together letters from eighty nine of Frye's students and friends in which they recorded their recollections of him as a teacher during the 1940s and 1950s However these students provided very few accounts of what Frye actually said in the classroom Outside of the video recordings of Frye's course in the English Bible this book a transcription of fifteen sets of notes taken by Northrop Frye's students in the late 1940s and early 1950s is the only available extended record of the content of Frye's courses For all those who wish that they could have sat in one or more of Frye's classes the present collection of notes will at least partially fulfill that wish One can now attend as it were fifteen of Frye's classes without having to pay tuition Beyond the Night Nadine Farghaly, 2015-09-04 Werewolves witches vampires demons gods zombies and shape shifters these are just a few examples of the monstrous that society is confronted with Most people have some knowledge about these creatures and have had fleeting contact with ghosts fairies vampires and goblins either in their imagination or while reading watching or interacting with other people whether in reality or the online world From Beowulf and Buffy to Freddy Krueger and Frankenstein's Monster this collection highlights different aspects of the monstrous and discusses various ways in which they can be read, discussed and understood. What does the mother in Beowulf really represent? How can the character of Zoey Redbird really be understood? What is the importance of memories in Buffy the Vampire Slayer? And what should we make of Terry Pratchett's undead creatures? And what role does the children-friendly vampire play? Beyond the Night offers a range of insights into these topics as well as many more. It presents the reader with a vast array of old and new creatures in popular culture, analysing the significance they have for wider society. This collection will also help readers to understand their favourite monsters better in relation to questions concerning sexuality, gender, social change and otherness.

Interviews with B Science Fiction and Horror Movie Makers Tom Weaver, 2006-10-11
 For fans of SF and horror films, will there ever be a decade to compare with the 1950s? Actors, directors, producers and crews prevailed over microbudgets and four-day shooting schedules to create enduring films. This book turns a long overdue spotlight on many who made memorable contributions to that crowded, exhilarating filmmaking scene. John Agar, Beverly Garland, Samuel Z. Arkoff, Gene Corman and two dozen more reminisce about the most popular genre titles of the era. Lengthy in-depth interviews feature canny questions, pointed observations, rare photos and good fun. Godey's Lady's Book Louis Antoine Godey, Sarah Josepha Buell Hale, 1851. Includes music. Aesthetic and Myth in the Poetry of Keats Walter H. Evert, 2015-12-08. In this highly perceptive and original study, Evert traces Keats' formulation in his early work of mythography of the imagination, founded on Apollo, through its radical qualification in his later work. Originally published in 1965, The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print-on-demand technology to again make available previously out-of-print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press. These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions. The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905. The Publishers Weekly, 1886 Commonweal, 1924
