A Woman of the Future: Text Classics David Ireland, 2012-11-21 An imaginative tour de force A Woman of the Future is the story of the young life of Anthea Hunt from conception to sexual awakening It is controversial and brilliant and unlike anything else in Australian literature

A Difficult Young Man: Text Classics Martin Boyd, 2012-04-26 Handsome proud reprehensible misunderstood Dominic Langton is the dark heart of A Difficult Young Man His brother Guy can scarcely understand where he fits into the pattern of things or what he might do next Martin Boyd's much loved novel is an elegant witty and compelling family tale about the contradictions of growing up The Dyehouse Mena Calthorpe, 2016-08-29

Written with unerring skill and insight The Dyehouse is a masterly portrait of postwar Australia when industrial work was radically transformed by new technologies and society changed with it Mena Calthorpe who herself worked in a textile factory takes us inside this world vividly bringing to life the people of an inner Sydney company in the mid 1950s the bosses middlemen and underlings their dramatic struggles and their loves This powerful and affecting novel was first published in 1961 and is the hundredth book in the Text Classics series The new edition comes with an introduction by Fiona McFarlane acclaimed author of The Night Guest Mena Calthorpe was born in Goulburn New South Wales in 1905 and grew up there After marrying Calthorpe moved to Sydney and lived for most of her life in the Sutherland Shire Working in office jobs and writing in her spare time she was active in literary groups and in the Labor Party for some years she was a member of the Communist Party and she opposed B A Santamaria's attempts to stop communism in trade unions The Dyehouse 1961 was followed by The Defectors 1969 which dramatised unions internal power struggles Mena Calthorpe's third and final novel was The Plain of Ala an Irish migrant story which was published in 1989 She died in 1996 The Dyehouse is executed with a singular combination of charm grace and tough mindedness Meanjin The Dyehouse is an extraordinary book a true ensemble novel written with astonishing control and animated by compassionate intelligence With its indelible Sydney setting it deserves more than deserves to take its place among the great Australian novels about work and to be celebrated as the 100th Text Classic Fiona McFarlane A reminder of how rarely these days fiction tackles the world of work that so dominates our lives Worth reading as much for its social history and its understanding of human nature as its rendering of the labour capital clash Australian Vivid fresh and utterly unsentimental Re reading The Dyehouse now I am struck by how technically accomplished it is and how each of its many characters is made distinct and alive with extraordinary economy Calthorpe's own experience of factory and office work provides The Dyehouse with many authentic touches including much detail about the dyeing process but that is not what generates this novel's compelling power What is so remarkable is how it captures and presents a microcosmic world in which the human elements are all parts of a moving whole Sydney Morning Herald The Dyehouse has themes that are as true today as they were at the time of writing Beautifully written Booksellers New Zealand A masterly portrait of post war Australia vividly bringing to life the people of an inner Sydney company in the mid 1950s Womankind The Dyehouse is the perfect novel for the Text Classics centenary It's a shining example of a book we've never heard of that is very good reading indeed I started reading The Dyehouse last night when I went to bed at 10 o'clock I became so absorbed in it that I didn't turn the light out till four o'clock in the morning That speaks for itself I think ANZ LitLovers Fresh and lively I really can't recommend this book enough Whispering Gums A fascinating novel of women and work Australian Women's Weekly

Terror and Counter-Terror in Contemporary British Children's Literature

Blanka Grzegorzcyk, 2020-05-10 The widespread threat of terrorist and counter terrorist violence in the twenty first century has created a globalized context for social interactions transforming the ways in which young people relate to the world around them and to one another This is the first study that reads post 9 11 and 7 7 British writing for the young as a response to this contemporary predicament exploring how children s writers find the means to express the local conditions and different facets of the global wars around terror The texts examined in this book reveal a preoccupation with overcoming various forms of violence and prejudice faced by certain groups within post terror Britain as well as a concern with mapping out their social relations with other groups and those concerns are set against the recurring themes of racist paranoia anti immigrant hostility politicized identities and growing up in countries transformed by the effects of terror and counter terror The book concentrates on the relationship between postcolonial and critical race studies Britain s colonial legacy and literary representations of terrorism tracing thematic and formal similarities in the novels of both established and emerging children s writers such as Elizabeth Laird Sumia Sukkar Alan Gibbons Muhammad Khan Bali Rai Nikesh Shukla Malorie Blackman Claire McFall Miriam Halahmy and Sita Brahmachari In doing so this study maps new connections for scholars students and readers of contemporary children s fiction who are interested in how such writing addresses some of the most pressing issues affecting us today including survival after terror migration and community building

Pricing the Priceless Joseph P. Newhouse, 2004-08-20 The health care industry differs from most other industries in that medical pricing is primarily administered by the government and private insurers and in that it uses several types of contracts Providers may receive a fixed sum for all necessary services within a given period of time for the necessary services to treat a given condition or for each specific service The industry is changing dramatically offering many natural experiments to aid understanding of the economics of pricing for health care In Pricing the Priceless Joseph Newhouse explains the different pricing systems and how they affect resource allocation and efficiency focusing on the efficiency of pricing He also discusses larger issues of equity fair distribution of burden and social justice Although most of the examples are American based the same issues arise in all medical care financing and delivery systems and the theories and models are general enough to apply to many institutional contexts The topics include Medicare managed care the contemporary integration of health insurance and medical care the management of moral hazard and stinting uncertainty and risk aversion the demand for health insurance agency relationships information disparities regulation and supply side and demand side selection

Theft of a Nation Gregg Barak,2012-08-02 Theft of a Nation presents a powerful criminological examination of Wall Street s recent financial meltdown and its profound impact on the rest of the country This provocative book asks why if the actions of key players on Wall Street and in the government resulted in an economic downturn that harmed millions of Americans and destroyed capital worldwide no one was held criminally liable for these actions Author Gregg Barak provides a basic history of financial regulation and deregulation as well as a primer on both securities fraud and mass victimization Using key concepts in victimology and white collar crime he explores the diverse ways civil and criminal law enforcement responded to the damaging behavior on Wall Street The book also assesses Wall Street Financial Reform and the Consumer Protection Act of 2010 showing the ways that Americans may still be at risk Theft of a Nation is the first comprehensive criminological investigation of the role of Wall Street and the government in the recent financial crisis asking critical questions about who has been victimized and why

Australia in Arms Phillip Schuler,2018-04-02 The whole Allied front was barely four miles swept by a terrible inferno of shells The air was filled with the white woolly clouds that the Anzac men old soldiers now knew meant a hail of lead Published soon after the evacuation from Gallipoli Australia in Arms is a vital early account of the Dardanelles campaign The young journalist Philip Schuler later killed in battle witnessed the whole of the August offensive from trenches at Lone Pine He saw the valour of the Anzacs and recognised too the strength of their Turkish opponents Vivid and incisive his book is one of the great achievements of Australian military writing Phillip Schuler born in Melbourne in 1889 is one of Australia s most significant World War I reporters The son of the editor of the Age he volunteered in 1914 to sail to Egypt as the newspaper s war correspondent In 1915 he travelled to Turkey where he was embedded with Anzac soldiers Written on Schuler s return home Australia in Arms was the first full length account of the Australian Imperial Force s Gallipoli offensive By the time it was published in early 1916 Phillip Schuler had enlisted with the AIF He died in 1917 of injuries sustained in the Battle of Messines The best and fullest story yet of the whole Anzac campaign General Sir John Monash Remarkably fresh compelling and dispassionate Mark Baker

Place Matters Peter Dreier, John Mollenkopf, Todd

Swanstrom, 2014-08-15 How can the United States create the political will to address our major urban problems poverty unemployment crime traffic congestion toxic pollution education energy consumption and housing among others That's the basic question addressed by the new edition of this award winning book Thoroughly revised and updated for its third edition Place Matters examines the major trends and problems shaping our cities and suburbs explores a range of policy solutions to address them and looks closely at the potential political coalitions needed to put the country's urban crisis back on the public agenda The problem of rising inequality is at the center of Place Matters During the past several decades the standard of living for the American middle class has stagnated the number of poor people has reached its highest level since the 1960s and the super rich have dramatically increased their share of the nation's wealth and income At the same time Americans have grown further apart in terms of where they live work and play This trend economic segregation no longer simply reflects the racial segregation between white suburbs and minority cities In cities and suburbs alike poor middle class and wealthy Americans now live in separate geographic spaces The authors have updated the case studies and examples used to illustrate the book's key themes incorporated the latest Census data and drawn on exit polls and other data to examine the voting patterns and outcomes of the 2012 elections They have expanded their discussion of how American cities are influenced by and influence global economic and social forces and how American cities compare with their counterparts in other parts of the world And they draw upon the latest research and case studies not only to examine the negative impacts of income inequality and economic segregation but also assess the efforts that civic and community groups unions business and government are making to tackle them Fully up to date and far richer and more provocative this new version surpasses its previous editions and will continue to be an essential volume for all who study urban politics and care about our cities

The Law of Globalization Laurence Boule,2009-01-01 There is a growing clamour particularly from the main beneficiaries of globalization that rules need to be established to govern the international economy with a specific focus on questions such as copyright violations trade sanctions and protections for foreign investment Those who perceive they are disadvantaged by globalization demand other legal protections in relation to employment cultural traditions and the environment

Counter-Terrorism Strategies in a Fragmented International Legal Order Larissa van den Herik,Nico Schrijver,2013-07-18 Few events have influenced our global order as intensely as the events of September 11 2001 At various levels in the past ten years persistent attempts have been made to address the threat of terrorism yet there is still urgent need for a joint and coherent application of a variety of regulations relating to international criminal justice co operation the use of force and international human rights law In an important contribution to international discourse Larissa van den Herik and Nico Schrijver examine the relationship between different branches of international law and their applicability to the problem of terrorism and counter terrorism Using a unique combination of academic perspectives practitioners insights and a comprehensive three part approach Counter terrorism Strategies in a Fragmented International Legal Order offers sound policy recommendations alongside thorough analysis of the state of international law regarding terrorism and provides fresh insights against the backdrop of recent practice

A Pentecostal Political Theology for American Renewal Steven M. Studebaker,2016-10-26 This book argues that Christians have a stake in the sustainability and success of core cultural values of the West in general and America in particular Steven M Studebaker considers Western and American decline from a theological and specifically Pentecostal perspective The volume proposes and develops a Pentecostal political theology that can be used to address and reframe Christian political identity in the United States Studebaker asserts that American Christians are currently not properly engaged in preventing America s decline or halting the shifts in its core values The problem he suggests is that American Christianity not only gives little thought to the state of the nation beyond a handful of moral issues like abortion but its popular political theologies lead Christians to think of themselves more as aliens than as citizens This book posits that the proposed Pentecostal political theology would help American Christians view themselves as citizens and better recognize their stake in the renewal of their nation The foundation of this proposed political theology is a pneumatological narrative of renewal a biblical narrative of the Spirit that begins with creation proceeds through Incarnation and Pentecost and culminates in the new creation and everlasting kingdom of God This narrative provides the foundation for a political theology that speaks to the issues of Christian political identity and encourages Christian political participation Myself When Young Henry Handel Richardson, 2019-08-06 The unfinished autobiography of one of the great Australian novelists Henry Handel Richardson the pen name of Ethel F Lindesay Robertson From the author of The Fortunes of Richard Mahoney and The Getting of Wisdom comes this lively and revealing self portrait of the artist as a young woman The Multiple Effects of Rainshadow Thea Astley, 2018-04-30 There are distant shouts rifle shots the pounding of feet across the bridge the sound of running A woman s scream carves the night then bubbles away In 1930 the superintendent of a mission on a Queensland island driven mad by his wife s death goes on a murderous rampage Fearing for their lives the other whites arm a young Indigenous man and order him to shoot Uncle Boss dead The Multiple Effects of Rainshadow traces the lead up to this bloody showdown and the repercussions in the years after for Aboriginal people and the colonial overseers Thea Astley was born in Brisbane in 1925 Her first novel Girl with a Monkey was published in 1958 and her third The Well Dressed Explorer 1962 won the Miles Franklin Literary Award Many notable books followed among them the groundbreaking A Kindness Cup 1974 which addressed frontier massacres of Indigenous Australians and It s Raining in Mango 1987 Her last novel was Drylands 1999 her fourth Miles Franklin winner Her fiction is distinguished by vivid imagery and metaphor a complex ironic style and a desire to highlight oppression and social injustice One of the most distinctive and influential Australian novelists of the twentieth century Astley died in 2004 A lifelong chain smoker famed for her sharp wit Thea Astley died in 2004 the year after her husband died She remains one of the most distinctive and influential Australian novelists of the twentieth century Passion brilliance and originality Sydney Morning Herald Formidable Uniquely provocative acerbic and glittering Australian Corporate Governance 1e Steen Thomsen, Martin Conyon, 2012-04-16 This exciting new text provides a complete introduction to Corporate Governance It deals with the control and direction of companies by boards owners and company law and also looks at the mechanisms of governance and the different governance systems around the world Part 1 is a non technical overview of the relevant theories governance mechanisms and the country models Part 2 looks at some of the most important governance mechanisms in detail Part 3 studies individual international corporate governance systems Part 4 wraps up with a discussion on governance practices Bankruptcy Joseph Spooner, Joseph Tobias Spooner, 2019-04-11 Excessive household debt has allowed for economic growth but this model has become increasingly unstable Spooner examines bankruptcy law as a potential solution The European Union and International Investment Law Francesco Montanaro, 2023-03-23 This book explores the interaction between the EU and international investment law both at the internal level namely within the EU internal market and at the external level i e in the context of its relations with third States The joint treatment of these dimensions reveals that the EU has assumed an ostensibly ambivalent attitude towards international investment law At the internal level it has consistently asserted that intra EU international investment agreements IIAs are not compatible with EU law and advocated their termination At the external level by contrast it has eagerly deployed IIAs to develop its post Lisbon international investment policy The book finds that beneath this apparent ambivalence towards international investment law ultimately lies the EU s attempt to impose both internally and externally its own original model of regulation of cross border investment It then argues that the EU adopted this approach with a view to supporting its internal market enhancing its external influence and ultimately pursuing long term federal aspirations Finally the book identifies the legal and political obstacles that have curtailed the EU s efforts at both the internal and the external level
