Indigenous Teaching Disciplines and

Perspectives for Higher Education Kgari-Masondo, Maserole Christina,2025-03-28 Literature indicates that sociolinguists and educationists often claim multilingual practice and Africanizing and Indigenizing education will jeopardize national unity and social cohesion Such claims delay the implementation of decolonization policies and the transformation of the curriculum under false assumptions However research reveals many Indigenous students struggle with higher educational content which is often presented through languages that are unfamiliar to them This implies that there is a need to uncover resources that can assist in necessitating the implementation of Indigenous education globally and that all multilingual strategies in education must be based on quality mother tongue illustrative content as its foundation As a result further research on the subject is necessary to enhance teaching strategies that reach all Indigenous students Indigenous Teaching Disciplines and Perspectives for Higher Education illustrates the need for the implementation of a decolonized teaching and learning curriculum with integrated resources as models It explores how to improve Indigenous knowledge content and teaching methods Covering topics such as cultural identity African research methodology and Indigenous media this book is an excellent resource for teachers policymakers school administrators researchers scholars academicians and more

Sounds of Life Fainos Mangena,Itai Muwati,2016-02-08 Music narrates personal communal and national experiences It is a rich repository of a people's deepest fears, hopes and achievements especially as it communicates spirituality, economic and political realities. This volume examines the multiple roles of music in Zimbabwe showing how Zimbabwean music has addressed the socio-economic, political and spiritual crisis that the country has endured in the last one and a half decades. While concentrating on the tumultuous 2000-2013 period, the themes that are addressed here are enduring. Thus the book explores the interplay between music and gender, music and politics, and music and identity construction in Zimbabwe and it interacts with most of the dominant genres in Zimbabwean music including Sungura, ZORA, Chimurenga Gospel and the Urban Grooves. This volume will interest specialists in the study of ethnomusicology in addition to scholars of literature, religious studies, philosophy, theatre arts, political science and history. Centering on African Practice in Musical Arts Education Minette Mans, 2006. This collection brings together many African voices expressing their ideas and conceptions of musical practice and arts education in Africa. With essays from established scholars in the field as well as young researchers and educators and topics ranging from philosophical arguments and ethnomusicology to practical classroom ideas, this book will stimulate academic discourse. At the same time, practical ideas and information will assist teachers and students in Africa and elsewhere, bringing fresh musical perspectives on instrument playing, singing, children's literature and play. Distance Education B. N. Koul, Janet Jenkins, 1990. Pedagogics, Curriculum Transformation, and the Future of Teachers' Colleges in Zimbabwe Costain Tandi, Munyaradzi Mawere, Wilson Zivave, Rosina Mavunga, 2025-06-12. This pioneering volume explores Zimbabwe's evolving educational landscape and offers crucial insights into the future of teacher training. Authored by leading education experts, it examines the core concepts of curriculum innovation and modularization, highlighting their vital role in transforming teaching practices and improving student learning outcomes in Zimbabwean Teacher Colleges. By directly addressing the ongoing curriculum transformation, the book analyses its strengths, weaknesses, challenges and opportunities, providing a visionary path for the future of teacher education in Zimbabwe. Drawing on rigorous research and practical examples, it underscores the need to adapt teaching methods to the evolving educational demands of a rapidly changing Zimbabwean society. Championing the power of modularization, this resource is an essential guide for all committed to building a more inclusive and transformative education system. Media and Technology in 21st Century Higher and Tertiary Education in Africa Costain Tandi, 2023-09-30. This book interrogates media and technology in the 21st century higher and tertiary education in Africa. Using Zimbabwe as its case study, the book highlights the immense changes that the digital revolution has brought to higher institutions of learning in Africa, including changes in teaching and learning. Framed from an anti-colonial perspective, the book argues that digital change, though critical in revolutionising education in Africa, has come with a price, as it has resulted in some epistemological erasures and injustices meted against the poor. The book makes a critical contribution as it quests to correct the misdemeanours and injustices caused by digital gaps in African societies. The authors argue that the future and success of digital technology in Africa lie in how well African countries will culturally and contextually sensor technology and attend to the problems caused by digital gaps The book provides a re invigorated overview and nuanced analyses of the role of media and technology in revolutionising 21st century higher and tertiary education in Africa It provides pointers and insights on how African countries can reformulate their education policy in a manner that is in sync with the level of digital technology of the time This is an important addition to critical debates on media and technology studies in education in Africa     Annual Report of the Secretary for Higher Education for the Year Ended ...
