

Unit HSC 3048

Support individuals at the end of life

This unit is worth
7 credits

What are you finding out?

In this unit you will learn about the legal and organisational requirements to protect the rights of individuals at the end of life, as well as the key factors that can affect individuals' end-of-life care. You will also find out more about the purpose and systems for advance care planning and how to provide support both to individuals and the key people involved during end-of-life care.

This unit will also equip you with the knowledge that is required to understand how to address sensitive issues that may arise in relation to end-of-life care. The role of organisations, support services and the wider team in relation to supporting individuals and key people will also be explored in more detail.

Being able to support individuals through the process of dying, knowing the actions to take following the death of individuals, as well as being able to manage your feelings in relation to the dying or death of individuals, are integral aspects of supporting end-of-life care. This chapter will provide you with the opportunity to explore these in more detail.

By the end of this unit you will:

- 1 Understand the requirements of legislation and agreed ways of working to protect the rights of individuals at the end of life.
- 2 Understand factors affecting end-of-life care.
- 3 Understand advance care planning in relation to end-of-life care.
- 4 Be able to provide support to individuals and key people during end-of-life care.
- 5 Understand how to address sensitive issues in relation to end-of-life care.
- 6 Understand the role of organisations and support services available to individuals and key people in relation to end-of-life care.
- 7 Be able to access support for the individual or key people from the wider team.
- 8 Be able to support individuals through the process of dying.
- 9 Be able to take action following the death of individuals.
- 10 Be able to manage own feelings in relation to the dying or death of individuals.
