Living Your Life While Trusting God With Theirs:

Living Your Life, While Trusting God with Theirs Mary Lynn Ludwig, 2014-08-12 Do you have a teenager or adult child whose difficulties seem to be preventing you from living your life We are not responsible when they choose the wrong path We are not responsible to carry them if they take drugs or commit crimes Even when they have a disease such as mental illness we cannot carry this load for them Do you feel guilty as if you can't do enough to help Do you question what you didn't do right or what you did wrong Are you compelled to somehow make this right You can be freed from this false belief and start living your life God does not hold you responsible Galatians 6:5 says for each one should carry his own load Taking on others responsibilities is not being a good person it is enabling the person and preventing them from growing as a person It is important to know what you are responsible for and what you are not My son Bradley had paranoid schizophrenia It was serious and I had to learn new ways to cope and help him Much of what I needed to learn was to give it to God and then find people to help me After ten years of Brad in several apartments group homes and the mental health complex he passed my son died due to his medication that ruined his heart I stand only by the grace of God In this book I impart to you what has helped me

Chronic Love: Trusting God While Suffering with A Chronic Illness Brooke Bartz, 2019-09-01 Suffering is inescapable in this world Jesus told us we would face perilous trials and that even our bodies would feel the effects of the Fall For women dealing with chronic illness most books offer quick fix counseling or devotional verses taken out of context helpful only for momentary encouragement For true and lasting comfort we must dig deeper into God's Word and the context in which those much used passages were written In Chronic Love Brooke Bartz reveals a deeply raw and descriptive account of life with a chronic and debilitating illness and she shares with readers how comfort and strength can be found through the Truth in God's Word Specifically designed for women who daily battle chronic illness Chronic Love's goal is to provide solid Scriptural encouragement for the fight

Preble,2023-03-27 Becoming a Christian is wonderful but living the life of a Christian is so much more To dedicate oneself to the service of the Lord is one of the most wholesome experiences anyone can imagine Yet with their newfound faith many lack the knowledge of how to properly live the Christian life This can be true for anybody but even more so for the incarcerated Christian who has to deal with the hatred violence and misery that prison culture so often brings them Many end up impeded in the advancement of their faith Having lived the life himself and overcome its challenges by the grace of God this book is written by an inmate for other inmates and it details how to begin to understand what it means to be a Christian how to follow God's will for your life and how to triumph through the difficulties and setbacks prison plays on those of the faith trying to find God in seemingly godless circumstances Not only will this fifty day journey be life changing but also it will help you come to terms with the past give you hope for the future and guide you in developing a proper understanding of God's will for your life Ultimately it will lead you to the healthy relationship God so desires for you to have with him This is for those truly looking to know God to worship him and to bring him glory with their lives both in prison and afterward The Practical Works of Richard Baxter Richard Baxter,1838 Leaves of Healing ,1929 NLT
