Committee on Armed Services, 1962 American Rifleman , 1925 Ned Kelly Craig Cormick, 2014-10 Ned Kelly was hanged at the Old Melbourne Gaol on 11 November 1880 and his body buried in the graveyard there Many stories emerged about his skull being separated and used as a paperweight or trophy and it was finally put on display at the museum of the Old Melbourne Gaol until it was stolen in 1978 It wasn't only Ned Kelly's skull that went missing After the closure of the Old

Melbourne Gaol in 1929 the remains of deceased prisoners were exhumed and reinterred in mass graves at Pentridge Prison. The exact location of these graves was unknown until 2002 when the bones of prisoners were uncovered at the Pentridge site during redevelopment. This triggered a larger excavation that in 2009 uncovered many more coffins and led to the return of the skull and a long scientific process to try to identify and reunite Ned Kelly's remains. But how do you go about analysing and accurately identifying a skeleton and skull that are more than 130 years old? Ned Kelly Under the Microscope details what was involved in the 20 month scientific process of identifying the remains of Ned Kelly with chapters on anthropology, odontology, DNA studies, metallurgical analysis of the gang's armour and archaeological digs at Pentridge Prison and Glenrowan. It also includes medical analysis of Ned's wounds and a chapter on handwriting analysis that all lead to the final challenging conclusions. Illustrated throughout with photographs taken during the forensic investigation as well as historical images, the book is supplemented with breakout boxes of detailed but little known facts about Ned Kelly and the gang to make this riveting story a widely appealing read.

Snipers have a rich history. This fascinating book follows their tasks and techniques from the Revolutionary and Civil Wars through both World Wars to the Korean War and Vietnam, the genesis of modern sniping to the current conflicts in the Middle East. Also, readers will see how sniping has evolved on the civilian side in law enforcement. Readers will learn about the tools of the trade but most importantly they will hear from the experts themselves: military snipers as well as civilian police and SWAT snipers. Capturing the suspense and action of the hunt, the words of these men draw readers into the close-knit, little-known world of men who need only one bullet to get the job done. Shooting and Fishing, 1906 Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1991 Handguns 2004 Dave Arnold, 2003-09 The latest edition of the top-selling handguns annual features new reports on handguns for field and personal protection use. Hunter-trader-trapper, 1912 Gung-ho, 1983 The Secrets of Station 14 Des Turner, 2022-02-24 Briggens House near Harlow in Essex was one of the most important of the establishments requisitioned by the Special Operations Executive (SOE) during the Second World War. Its mission was to accomplish Winston Churchill's directive to set Europe ablaze and initially the house was used as a finishing school for the Cichociemni elite Polish saboteurs to prepare to parachute into Nazi-occupied Poland. In need of false identity documents to avoid arrest, interrogation and execution, its agents SOE gradually built up a printing department on site and Station 14 became the organisation's False Document Section. This is the true story of the house and its highly skilled wartime personnel including British officers, Polish agents and the women of the First Aid Nursing Yeomanry For the resident staff it was a relatively safe posting but tension built as the Poles fighting their own battle for Polish independence competed for scarce resources in wartime Britain SOE historian Des Turner uses first hand accounts memoirs and official records to reveal long forgotten stories of tragedy humour and frustration giving long overdue credit to the men and women of Briggens House who were prevented by the Secrets Act from ever speaking about their wartime work Gun Digest Ken Warner,1990
