Islamic Civilizations Complete Unit Guide Packet

Overview

The Islamic civilization is a remarkable example of human achievement. It began in the 7th century in the Arabian Peninsula and spread across the world, influencing art, science, and culture. This unit guide packet provides a comprehensive overview of the Islamic civilization, including its history, culture, and impact on the world.

In 711 CE, the Islamic civilization was born in Mecca, a city in the Arabian Peninsula. The prophet Muhammad, who is believed to be the last prophet, received the first revelation in 610 CE. He taught that there is only one God, Allah, and that Muhammad is His messenger. His teachings, known as Islam, emphasize the oneness of God and the importance of prayer, charity, and community.

The Islamic civilization spread rapidly across the world, reaching its peak in the 10th century. It was a time of great achievement in art, science, and culture. The Islamic civilization was a melting pot of different cultures and religions, and it played a major role in the development of the modern world.

Meri, 2006 Publisher description

Rethinking World History Marshall G. S. Hodgson, 1993-05-28 Is the history of the modern world the history of Europe writ large Or is it possible to situate the history of modernity as a world historical process apart from its origins in Western Europe In this posthumous collection of essays Marshall G S Hodgson challenges adherents of both Eurocentrism and multiculturalism to rethink the place of Europe in world history He argues that the line that connects Ancient Greeks to the Renaissance to modern times is an optical illusion and that a global and Asia centred history can better locate the European experience in the shared histories of humanity Hodgson then shifts the historical focus and in a parallel move seeks to locate the history of Islamic civilisation in a world historical framework In so doing he concludes that there is but one history global history and that all partial or privileged accounts must necessarily be resituated in a world historical context The book also includes an introduction by the editor Edmund Burke contextualising Hodgson's work in world history and Islamic history
