The Zimbabwe Culture Innocent Pikirayi, Joseph O. Vogel, 2002-07-15 Offering a unique and original perspective on the rise and fall of indigenous states of southern Zambezia The Zimbabwe Culture analyzes the long contentious history of the remains of the remarkable cyclopean masonry ranging from mighty capitals of traditional kings to humble farmsteads Forming a cornerstone of the geographical lore of Africa in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries debate on the origins development and collapse of the Zimbabwe culture has never ceased and with increasing archaeological research over the twentieth century has become more complex Thoroughly examining the growth and decline of pre colonial states on the entire Zimbabwean Plateau and southern Zambezia Dr Pikirayi has contributed tremendously towards the archaeological understanding of this extraordinary culture The Zimbabwe Culture is essential reading for all students and avocationalists of African archaeology history and culture

The Political Legacy of Colonialism in Zimbabwe Everisto Benyera, 2024-11-18 This book investigates the political legacy of colonialism in contemporary African institutions Using the case study of electoral and justice institutions in post colonial Zimbabwe the book explores how those in post colonial states relate to and with institutions initially designed to oppress them and remain structurally and systematically colonial The book argues that the colonial era colonised the land knowledge and minds of Africans resulting in injustice and epistemicides The book demonstrates how the critical institutions of elections and justice have been rendered anti black and toxic The book calls for Africa to invest in epistemic independence unencumbered by Western political modernity and then deploy that independence to build reconstituted institutions structures and systems that serve the interests of Africans This book will be an important read for African policymakers and researchers working on African politics governance and international relations

Kehoe,2019-04-26 This book provides a fresh and bold look at how archaeologists and heritage managers may enhance their capacity to interpret and understand material culture and heritage values Drawing on the founding principles of anthropology Archaeologies of Listening demonstrates the value of cultural apprenticeship an almost forgotten part of archaeological practice The International Journal of African Historical Studies ,1983 Fashioning Inland Communities Yaari Felber-Seligman,2025 When viewed from the economic centers of the Indian or Atlantic Oceans the Ruvuma region of East Africa crossing what is now Tanzania Malawi and Mozambique would look like a periphery But the same factors that marginalize the region historically brought distinct opportunities In Fashioning Inland Communities Yaari Felber Seligman traces the long history from the first millennium CE into the twentieth century of Ruvuma trade practices within a changing world Felber Seligman argues that Ruvuma trade should be understood fundamentally as a set of voluntary choices undertaken and revised to further communities aspirations Ruvuma used fashion to build varied communities from local to pan regional reflecting the dynamic relationships among inland groups Examples of Ruvuma popular fashions reveal processes of meaning making and community building that call for us to expand our attention to the ways in which East African peoples interacted alongside as well as beyond trade networks that sourced prestige and commercial goods Popular culture here emerges as a heterarchical force that shaped lasting multidirectional connections across and between Ruvuma and their neighbors As both a subject and a strategy for analysis the history of popular fashion shifts how we view histories of small decentralized societies as they encounter larger economies Felber Seligman demonstrates that this has implications for our understanding not only of trade but of material culture community gender and family African Biography Virginia Curtin Knight,1999 Presents biographical entries on seventy five noteworthy Africans historical and contemporary in a variety of fields from a wide range of sub Saharan countries The Illustrated Encyclopedia of Mankind ,1989
