Pet Projects Elizabeth Young,2019-12-17 In Pet Projects Elizabeth

Young joins an analysis of the representation of animals in nineteenth century fiction taxidermy and the visual arts with a first person reflection on her own scholarly journey Centering on Margaret Marshall Saunders a Canadian woman writer once famous for her animal novels and incorporating Young s own experience of a beloved animal s illness this study highlights the personal and intellectual stakes of a pet project of cultural criticism Young assembles a broad archive of materials beginning with Saunders s novels and widening outward to include fiction nonfiction photography and taxidermy She coins the term first dog voice to describe the narrative technique of novels such as Saunders s Beautiful Joe written in the first person from the perspective of an animal She connects this voice to contemporary political issues revealing how animal fiction such as Saunders s reanimates nineteenth century writing about both feminism and slavery Highlighting the prominence of taxidermy in the late nineteenth century she suggests that Saunders transforms taxidermic techniques in surprising ways that provide new forms of authority for women Young adapts Freud to analyze literary representations of mourning by and for animals and she examines how Canadian writers including Saunders use animals to explore race ethnicity and national identity Her wide ranging investigation incorporates twenty first as well as nineteenth century works of literature and culture including recent art using taxidermy and contemporary film Throughout she reflects on the tools she uses to craft her analyses examining the state of scholarly fields from feminist criticism to animal studies With a lively first person voice that highlights experiences usually concealed in academic studies by scholarly discourse such as detours zigzags roadblocks and personal experience this unique and innovative book will delight animal enthusiasts and academics in the fields of animal studies gender studies American studies and Canadian studies Celtic Monthly ,1908 Palgrave

Handbook of Critical Posthumanism Stefan Herbrechter,Ivan Callus,Manuela Rossini,Marija Grech,Megen de Bruin-Molé,Christopher John Müller,2022-11-28 Palgrave Handbook of Critical Posthumanism is a major reference work on the paradigm emerging from the challenges to humanism humanity and the human posed by the erosion of the traditional demarcations between the human and nonhuman This handbook surveys and speculates on the ways in which the posthumanist paradigm emerged transformed and might further develop across the humanities With its focus on the posthuman as a figure on posthumanism as a social discourse and on posthumanisation as an on going historical and ontological process the volume highlights the relationship between the humanities and sciences The essays engage with posthumanism in connection with subfields like the environmental humanities health humanities animal studies and disability studies The book also traces the historical representations and understanding of posthumanism across time Additionally the contributions address genre and forms such as autobiography games art film museums and topics such as climate change speciesism anthropocentrism and biopolitics to name a few This handbook considers posthumanism s impact across disciplines and areas of study New Paths in Theatre Translation and Subtitling Vasiliki Misiou,Loukia Kostopoulou,2023-08-09 This collection provides an in depth exploration of subtitling for theatre and its potential in enhancing accessibility and creativity in both the production and reception of theatrical performances The volume collects the latest research on subtitling which encompasses translating lyrics or sections of dialogue and projecting them on a screen While most work has focused on opera this book showcases how it has increasingly played a role in theatre by examining examples from well known festivals and performances The 11 chapters underscore how the hybrid nature and complex semiotic modes of theatrical texts coupled with technological advancements offer a plurality of possibilities for applying subtitling effectively across different contexts The book calls attention to the ways in which agents in theatrical spaces need to carefully reflect on the role of subtitling in order to best serve the needs of diverse audiences and produce inclusive productions from translators considering appropriate strategies to directors working on how to creatively employ it in performance to companies looking into all means available for successful implementation Offering a space for interdisciplinary dialogues on subtitling in theatre this book will be of interest to scholars in audiovisual translation media accessibility and theatre and performance studies Unity ,1922 The Dog Fancier Eugene Glass,1920 A Brief Concordance, Or Table to the Bible of the Last Translation ...
