PERSONALITY TRAITS

Personality traits are characteristics that describe a person's behavior and how they interact with the world around them. These traits can be innate or learned and can vary significantly between individuals.

Understanding personality traits can help us better understand ourselves and others. It can also help us in our relationships and in our work. By knowing our own traits, we can better manage our behavior and our emotions. By knowing the traits of others, we can better understand their behavior and their needs.
