Inclusive Instruction for Students with Emotional and Behavioral Disorders Reesha Adamson,John William McKenna,2020-11-05 Inclusive Instruction forStudents with Emotional and Behavioral Disorders Pulling Back the Curtain discusses the challenges of the increasingly common practice of educating students with disabilities in general education classrooms citing that these challenges are often due to the fast pace of instruction the emphasis on advanced concepts and skills that align with college and career readiness standards and the presence of poorly developed prerequisite skills that are necessary for traditional academic success This book posits that these challenges are particularly salient to the education of students receiving special education services for emotional disturbance ED as students with ED have pervasive learning and behavioral difficulties that are often resistant to typical instruction and intervention Contributors argue that despite increased awareness and application of inclusive mindsets school and post school outcomes for this student population continue to be a national concern in the United States In this book contributors provide recommendations for improving the manner in which schools serve this student population through inclusive measures along with resources for administrators teachers and parents guardians that emphasize the provision of a free appropriate public education for students with ED Scholars of education disability studies and psychology will find this book particularly useful

Over-Tested and Under-Prepared Bob Sornson, 2015-12-07 The curriculum driven instructional model has been the standard method of teaching for more than a century but it is consistently failing to produce well educated citizens and lifelong learners Pressured by standardized testing and rigid pacing guidelines teachers are forced to cover too much content too quickly without being able to meet the needs of individual students In this powerful new book from acclaimed author and speaker Bob Sornson you ll learn how shifting from curriculum based instruction to competency based learning can help students become more successful confident and engaged learners Topics include Understanding the curriculum driven model and the problems with cover and sort methodology Making the transition from curriculum driven to competency based learning Identifying crucial learning outcomes and giving students all the time and instruction needed to fully master these outcomes Building a positive teaching and learning environment And more Each chapter is short and easy to digest and provides compelling research strategies and anecdotes to inspire conversation and action Teachers administrators and community leaders will all find helpful resources and arguments for re working our current educational system into a new dynamic model of teaching and learning
