Les Compositeurs Et L'art Radiophonique:

Les compositeurs et l'art radiophonique Andrea Cohen, 2015-05-01 Tout au long de son histoire la radio a suscité l'intérêt des compositeurs. Si le medium leur apparaît tout d'abord comme un espace privilégié pour la diffusion de leurs œuvres il devient également avec le développement de l'art radiophonique un lieu de création. Pour traiter de la relation des compositeurs et l'art radiophonique cet ouvrage propose un parcours historique suivi d'une réflexion esthétique. Les travaux radiophoniques de Pierre Schaeffer, John Cage, Luciano Berio et Mauricio Kagel sont examinés en détail.

Les compositeurs et l'art radiophonique Andréa Cohen, 2005 L'étude traite de la relation des compositeurs à l'art radiophonique. Elle se limite ceux qui consciemment et volontairement ont créé des œuvres pour ce médium. Dans leur confrontation fructueuse avec la radio ils s'approchent d'une manière singulière où leur relation au sonore joue un rôle de premier plan. Dès lors leur position permet de cerner un des points essentiels de la réflexion : l'art radiophonique est-il un art acoustique autonome ou un genre musical ? Question qui reste ouverte chaque œuvre apporte une réponse à sa propre manière. Dans un premier temps une présentation historique détaille les différentes positions esthétiques et les productions entre les années 1920 et 1990. L'œuvre radiophonique est ensuite étudiée comme un objet esthétique soumis aux conditions de production de diffusion et décrite. Les compositeurs y développent des stratégies diverses comme le montrent les analyses proposées. Elles révèlent la richesse et l'originalité des procédés compositionnels. La dernière partie met en évidence les divertissements d'Erik Satie, qui ne vise plus seulement une réflexion théorique mais aussi une interprétation personnelle des potentialités créatives du médium.

A Revolution in Music Évelyne Gayou, 2025 Established in the 1950s by musician and engineer Pierre Schaeffer, the Groupe de Recherches Musicales would become the nerve center for avant-garde artists experimenting with sound and acoustics as well as the birthplace of a genre of music making enabled by new recording technologies and sound pioneers. Through concrete music researcher, composer, and producer Évelyne Gayou herself, tells the history of the storied institution through the people, works, technologies, and research developed there. Placing musique concrète within a broad historical context extending from the early twentieth century avant-garde's experiments with noise to the development of techniques in sound recording at the Studio d'Essai in the 1940s and later in sound synthesis, Gayou shows how recording technology made it possible for composers not only to create music from sounds in the world around them but also to create acousmatic music—novel sounds without a visible connection to their source. Available in English translation for the first time, this updated edition will be an important resource for readers interested in the pioneering works and techniques of Schaeffer and his contemporaries as well as their influence on the makers of new music and the contemporary avant-garde.

Word, Sound and Music in Radio Drama, 2023-11-27 This collection offers an in-depth study of music's narrative functions in radio drama, whether original or adapted alongside speech and sound. It features a range of historical perspectives as well as case studies from Australia, Europe, and North America, highlighting broadcasting institutions such as the BBC, RAI, ABC, WDR, and SWR.

from early radio to the medium's postwar golden age and contemporary productions. Not limited to classical or popular music, the chapters also pay attention to electronic varieties and musical uses of language in addition to intermedial exchanges with other art forms such as theatre, opera and film. In doing so, the present volume sits at the crossroads of various disciplines: musicology, narratology, history, literary studies, media studies, sound studies and radio studies.

Le sonore et l'universel François-Bernard Mâche, 2018-09-13
François-Bernard Mâche, compositeur théoricien rassemblé dans ce volume ses conférences et ses articles écrits pendant les vingt dernières années entre 1995-2017. Les thèmes favoris que l'auteur a abordés sont présentés sous six rubriques complémentaires. Cela va de ceux très généraux qui concernent les fondements mêmes de l'art à ceux qui traitent de réalisations concrètes. En chemin, les rapports du musicien avec le langage, la nature et avec ses pairs sont précisés ou discutés tant dans des interviews qu'en dites, tant dans des expositions très libres et de formes très diverses. Le livre est plus celui d'un compositeur que celui d'un musicologue : les deux perspectives se complètent de façon successive. La réflexion théorique intervient après la création et sa finalité principale est de frayer ou d'élargir des voies pour celle-ci. L'approfondissement des propositions que contenaient précédemment des ouvrages comme Musique mythe nature 1983 et Musique au singulier 2001 devrait convenir aussi bien aux lecteurs qui en ont déjà connaissance qu'à ceux qui les découvriront travers cette anthologie.

Tuning in to the neo-avant-garde Inge Artee, Lars Bernaerts, Siebe Bluijs, Pim Verhulst, 2021-07-06
Bringing together an international and diverse group of scholars, Tuning in to the neo avant garde offers the first in-depth study of the radio medium's significance as a site of artistic experimentation for the literary neo avant garde in the postwar period. Covering radio works from the 1950s until the 2010s, the collection charts how artists across the UK, Europe and North America continued as well as reacted to the legacies of the historical avant garde and modernism operating within different national broadcasting contexts by placing radio in an intermedial dialogue with prose poetry, theatre, music and film. In doing so, the volume explores a wide variety of acoustic genres: radio play, feature electroacoustic music, radiophonic poem, radio opera, to show that the medium deserves to occupy a more central place than it currently does in studies of literature, intermediality and the neo avant garde.

Un compositeur aux commandes de la radio Henry Barraud, Myriam Chimène, Karine Le Bail, 2010-11-17
Compositeur et homme de radio, Henry Barraud (1900-1997) se retourne dans ses dernières années sur le siècle qu'il a traversé. Il retrace son parcours entamé dans la bourgeoisie bordelaise où il est alors allié à François Mauriac, jalonné par la découverte de sa vocation musicale et le début de sa carrière à Paris, où il couvre alors l'ensemble des professions ouvertes aux compositeurs qui ne peuvent vivre de leur plume. Pendant le Front populaire, il travaille pour la direction des Beaux Arts puis organise les manifestations musicales de l'Exposition universelle de 1937 avant d'intégrer la radio à titre gratuit. Comme toutes les institutions, il reconstruit la Libération, directeur des programmes musicaux puis de la Chaîne nationale, où il y démontre une haute ambition culturelle, veillant aux destins de l'Orchestre national et initiant entre autres la série des grands entretiens avec des crivains Gide, Claudel, Mauriac, Lautaud ou des peintres Dalí, Matisse, Miró, sans pour autant cesser
