Proceedings of the 10th Focus Conference (TFC 2023) Manyane Makua, Mariam Akinlolu, Mashango Sithole, Phiwayinkosi Gumede, Cebo Nyondo, Ntombikhona Khuzwayo, Mandlenkosi Mhlongo, 2023-11-03 This is an open access book The 2023 Focus Conference will focus on Goal Four Quality Education of the United Nations UN Sustainable Development Goals SGD Goal Four is seized with providing equal access for all women and men to affordable and quality technical vocational and tertiary education including university Quality education in this context means the ability to function provide and derive value in society The theme of the conference is therefore coined as The Role of Higher Education in the Attainment of Sustainable Quality Education Through this theme the conference will provide a space for participants to share practical knowledge experiences and possible solutions to the myriad of problems that confront the higher education sector Universities are often thought of as ivory towers far removed from the realities that confront global societies To compound this higher education is increasingly being questioned for its relevance in providing practical and innovative solutions to existing societal problems Such questions often navigate around the relevance of the academic programmes being offered curriculum the capacity of staff employability of graduates and generally the ability of these institutions to understand why they exist Indeed higher education's role in creating a sustainable future will presumably take on greater importance as the world continues to become increasingly globalised and interdependent Education in a New South Africa Robert J. Balfour, 2015-09-24 A collaborative series with the University of Cambridge Faculty of Education highlighting leading edge research across Teacher Education International Education Reform and Language Education Language and Institutional Identity in the Post-Apartheid South African Higher Education Leketi Makalela, 2022-03-21 This book examines the intersections between education identity formation and language in post apartheid South Africa with specific attention to higher education It does so against the backdrop of the core argument that the sector plays a critical role in shaping reproducing and perpetuating sectoral class sub national and national identities which in turn in the peculiar South African setting are almost invariably analogous with the historical fault lines determined and dictated by language as a marker of ethnic and racial identity The chapters in the book grapple with the nuances related to these intersections in the understanding that higher education language policies overt and or covert largely structure institutional cultures or what has been described as curriculum in higher education institutions Together the chapters examine the roles played by higher education by language policies and by the intersections of these policies and ethnolinguistic identities in either constructing and perpetuating or deconstructing ethnolinguistic identities upon which the sector was founded The introductory chapter lays out the background to the entire book with an emphasis on the policy and practice perspectives on the intersections The middle chapters describe the so called White Universities Black Universities and Middle Man Minorities Universities The final chapter maps out future directions of the discourses on language and identity formation in South Africa s higher education
