My Choice With Unisa 2015:

Lugalla: Rethinking Teacher Education, 2023-06-27 Rethinking Teacher Education Improvement Innovation and Change is the result of the conference organised by The Aga Khan University Institute for Educational Development East Africa AKU IED EA on education in Uganda in 2017 The Conference gathered participants from nine countries to deliberate on a cross section of factors regarding teacher education in the region and landscaping the same on global perspectives The choice of the conference theme was inspired by a need to consider new systems policies structures and reforms to help drive sustainable education for the development of nations in the East African region A variety contributors participated from across the education landscape and included researchers working in higher education practitioners such as teachers in schools tutors instructors in colleges and lecturers and professors at universities Also contributing were non governmental organisations with interests in education and student learning outcomes civil society organisations whose interests navigate the role education plays in social and national development policy makers and curriculum developers librarians publishers booksellers and teacher trainees all of who shared their rich experiences and perspectives on teacher education in the 21st century in East Africa and globally

Complacent Nation Gavin Ellis, 2016-08-12 New Zealanders are too complacent about the continuing erosion of their right to know what government is doing on their behalf Political risk has become a primary consideration in whether official information requests will be met and successive governments have allowed free speech rights to be overridden Drawing on decades of experience as a journalist and editor Gavin Ellis chronicles the patterns of erosion and calls for entrenchment of the Bill of Rights Act As supreme law it would set a high bar that politicians must hurdle before freedom of expression could be curtailed

Superstition, Management and Organisations Joanna Crossman, 2024-04-30 This book addresses how people and organisations sometimes respond to uncertainty in making decisions Those decisions are rooted in beliefs and behaviours that are not always rational especially in response to perceived randomness chaos and unexpected circumstances The author uses a transdisciplinary approach to the study of superstition in the context of business and management taking care to acknowledge that what is regarded as superstition to one person may well be constructed as a spiritual belief by another Respect and sensitivity in explicating individual and social constructions of spirituality is a core value in structuring the narrative of the text The work also explores the interwoven relationships amongst superstition religion spirituality and empiricism and how cultural political economic and environmental factors are likely to influence organisations and those who are employed by them Further it examines the influence of beliefs related to topics such as feng shui astrology phrenology and the I Ching in recruitment This comprehensive treatment of the role of superstition in business will advance the scholarly conversation on uncertainty in decision making It points to the power of belief that defies empirical validation and how it can be used in a variety of contexts such as the marketing of products and images to manipulate unwary consumers or inhibit the implementation of health advice in times of COVID 19      Hayek: A Collaborative Biography Robert Leeson, 2019-08-05 This book is the eighth volume in this Collaborative Biography which explores the life and works of Nobel Prize winning economist F A Hayek 1899 1992 Making extensive use of archival material and Hayek s own published writings it presents a strong challenge to perceptions of the economist s life and thought In this volume chapters canvas subjects such as the relationship between the Austrian School of Economics and the Cold War the Hapsburg Empire and the overthrow or planned overthrow of democracy in a variety of countries with a view to examining the process by which economics is constructed and disseminated

Affirmative Intervention to Support Multispecies Relationships Janet J. McIntyre-Mills, 2024-11-29 This book offers a pioneering approach to collaborative co authorship integrating storytelling participatory action research and innovative uses of technology like Zoom to bridge geographical and cultural divides The authors emphasize authentic dialogue using a form of metalogue to ensure all voices are heard and respected thus avoiding ventriloquy speaking for or over others Their praxis revolves around performative and regenerative projects involving indigenous custodians academics students and community members aiming to address Species Apartheid and promote a more inclusive and sustainable future The book s engagement model includes inner work focusing on critical analysis and analytical meditation on values and their consequences outer work involving transformative education and organic food production workshops to engage a broad community of practice and future work exploring narrative and if then scenarios to envision new possibilities with an emphasis on creativity and courage The authors draw inspiration from diverse sources including Indigenous knowledge systems and various academic institutes and organizations Through their collaborative efforts they aim to create a more inclusive sustainable and just world      Assisted Reproductive Technologies in the Global South and North Virginie

Rozée, Sayeed Unisa, 2016-07-15 Assisted Reproductive Technologies in the Global South and North critically analyses the political and social frameworks of Assisted Reproductive Technology ART and its impact in different countries In the context of a worldwide social pressure to conceive particularly for women this collection explores the effect of the development of ARTs growing globalisation and reproductive medicalization on global societies Providing an overview of the issues surrounding ART both in the Global South and North this book analyses ART inequalities commonalities and specificities in various countries regions and on the transnational scene From a multidisciplinary perspective and drawing on multisite studies it highlights some new issues relating to ART e g egg freezing surrogacy and discusses some older issues regarding infertility and its medical treatment e g in vitro fertilisation childless stigmatisation and access to treatment This book aims to redress the balance between what is known about Assisted Reproductive Technologies in the Global North and how the issue is investigated in the Global South It aims to draw out the global similarities in the challenges that ARTs bring between these different areas of the world It will appeal to scholars and students in the social sciences medicine public health health policy women s and gender studies and demography      Student Plagiarism in Higher Education Diane Pecorari, Philip

Shaw,2018-10-09 Student Plagiarism in Higher Education is a crucial read for any university teacher concerned about plagiarism It provides the tools and information needed to assess this often complex international phenomenon constructively and effectively from a variety of angles and provides a framework for further discussion and research Each chapter poses a question about an essential aspect of plagiarism and examines the central theoretical ethical and technical questions which surround it Providing a unique perspective on the topic of academic plagiarism this book addresses questions which are vexing in teaching practice but for which ready answers are not available in professional skills development materials relates plagiarism to wider issues of learning and intellectual development collates the thinking of international leading experts on the topic of plagiarism from different areas of the academy Student Plagiarism in Higher Education provides an excellent insight which thoroughly interrogates all aspects of the plagiarism argument Theoretically based and carefully considered contributions from international experts ensure that this volume is an invaluable asset to anyone wishing to read more learn more and think more about plagiarism Educating Citizen Designers in South Africa Elmarie Costandius,Herman

Botes,2018-09-07 Educating Citizen Designers in South Africa is the first book of its kind to appear in post apartheid South Africa and it is therefore both overdue and extremely welcome The book aims at sharing critical citizenship design teaching and learning pedagogies by including contributions from a range of design educators and one student who work in different design disciplines such as architecture graphic and product design Critical citizenship education is explicated in relation to a range of theories and new and existing models Numerous contemporary case studies and examples of design projects from a range of South African Higher Education Institutions are included As such a variety of perspectives emerge including the consensual where the aim of critical citizenship education is viewed as promoting social justice shared values and critical thinking to the conflicting where critiques are levelled against conceptions of critical citizenship education Contentious contesting and contradictory views are inevitable and necessary given the South African context as it is only in open debate that the one point of agreement among the authors the need for social change can be worked towards Prof Deirdre Pretorius Univeristy of Johannesburg Global Servant-Leadership Shann Ray Ferch,Philip Mathew,Jiying Song,Larry C.

Spears,2020-11-12 In Global Servant Leadership Wisdom Love and Legitimate Power in the Age of Chaos leadership scholars and practitioners from around the globe share their insights on servant leadership philosophy representing diverse contexts and cultures and reflecting a variety of approaches to servant leadership through cutting edge research conceptual models and practice oriented case studies The contributors to this collection address some of the most significant leadership challenges of the twenty first century to reveal a path toward more healthy and sustainable individuals families organizations and nations Global Servant Leadership challenges not only the rigidly held assumptions of traditional hierarchical leadership approaches but provides an antidote to the cynicism so often present within workplaces political struggles and individual and family crises of contemporary polarized nation states Towards Consistency and Transparency in Academic Integrity Salim

Razı,Irene Glendinning,Tomáš Foltýnek,2019 This book aims to be a forum for sharing best practices and experiences by addressing issues of academic integrity from a wide scope global perspective It is dealing with consistent and transparent approaches to issues of academic integrity from several perspectives      Kaapse bibliotekaris ,2015 Issues for Nov 1957 include section Accessions Aanwinste Sept 1957
