Television's Strangest Moments Quentin Falk, Ben Falk, 2014-02-25 Ever since John Logie Baird first publicly demonstrated this now all pervasive medium in his small Soho laboratory the history of television has been littered with remarkable but true tales of the unexpected Ranging from bizarre stories of actors shenanigans to strange but true executive and marketing decisions and covering over one hundred shows series and episodes from both behind and in front of the camera in British and American television studios Television's Strangest Moments is the ultimate tome of TV trivia Why did the quintessential English sleuth The Saint drive a Swedish car What happened when Michael Aspel met Nora Batty on the set of the 1960s drama documentary The War Game Why is the Halloween chiller Ghostwatch still unofficially banned by the BBC From live TV suicide to Ricky Martin's disastrous candid camera style episode involving a young female fan and several cans of dog food Television's Strangest Moments will keep you hooked when there's nothing worth watching on the box

The Good, the Bad and the Wurst Geoff Tibballs, 2016-04-14 Sixty extraordinary years of Eurovision from Celine Dion to Dustin the Turkey from Abba to Conchita Wurst the drag acts the bad acts and all the nul points heroes For 60 years the Eurovision Song Contest has existed in a parallel universe where a song about the construction of a hydro electric power station is considered cutting edge pop where half a dozen warbling Russian grandmothers are considered Saturday night entertainment where a tune repeating the word la 138 times is considered a winner and where Australia is considered part of Europe During those sixty years we have witnessed scandals in 1957 Denmark's Birthe Wilke and Gustav Winckler enjoyed an outrageously long 13 second kiss because the stage manager forgot to say cut during the live broadcast We have witnessed national outrage the 1976 Greek entry was a savage indictment of Turkish foreign policy in Cyprus But most have all we have witnessed silly costumes terrible lyrics and performers as diverse as Celine Dion and Dustin the Turkey This book chronicles the 100 craziest moments in the history of Eurovision the drag acts the bad acts the nul points heroes and the night in Luxembourg when the floor manager warned the audience not to stand up while they applauded because they might be shot by security forces It captures some of the magic from this yearly event that continues to beguile and bemuse in equal measure
