autonome le soupçonnant parfois sans détour de sombrer dans le piège du cliché et l'amenant lentement par le dialogue et grand renfort d'images voir et comprendre en se dégageant du filtre de la pensée. Qu'il faut distinguer de l'intelligence. Nous vivons dans des concepts des idées c'est le propre de la pensée. L'intelligence au contraire recouvre un état de non savoir d'inter et de légère elle invite à lire entre les lignes. De la Suisse aux États-Unis en passant par l'Inde et la Grande Bretagne ces brillantes retranscriptions des conversations publiques de J. La vie la mort la peur la violence la liberté et bien d'autres notions viennent appuyer la tentative d'immobilisation de l'esprit de mise en veille pour appréhender notre être dans le monde et dans la vie et approcher le voile de l'intelligence.

Black French Women and the Struggle for Equality, 1848-2016 Félix Germain, Silyane Larcher, 2018-10-01 Black French Women and the Struggle for Equality 1848-2016 explores how black women in France itself the French Caribbean Gorée Dakar Rufisque and Saint Louis experienced and reacted to French colonialism and how gendered readings of colonization decolonization and social movements cast new light on the history of French colonization and of black France. In addition to delineating the powerful contributions of black French women in the struggle for equality contributors also look at the experiences of African American women in Paris and in so doing integrate into colonial and postcolonial conversations the strategies black women have engaged in negotiating gender and race relations.

la française Drawing on research by scholars from different disciplinary backgrounds and countries this collection offers a fresh multidimensional perspective on race class and gender relations in France and its former colonies exploring how black women have negotiated the boundaries of patriarchy and racism from their emancipation from slavery to the second decade of the twenty-first century.

Escape from New York Davarian L. Baldwin, Minkah Makalani, 2013-09-01 In the midst of vast cultural and political shifts in the early twentieth century politicians and cultural observers variously hailed and decried the rise of the New Negro. This phenomenon was most clearly manifest in the United States through the outpouring of Black arts and letters and social commentary known as the Harlem Renaissance. What is less known is how far afield of Harlem that renaissance flourished how much the New Negro movement was actually just one part of a collective explosion of political protest cultural expression and intellectual debate all over the world. In this volume the Harlem Renaissance escapes from New York into its proper global context These essays recover the broader New Negro experience as social movements popular cultures and public behavior spanned the globe from New York to New Orleans from Paris to the Philippines and beyond Escape from New York does not so much map the many sites of this early twentieth century Black internationalism as it draws attention to how New Negroes and their global allies already lived Resituating the Harlem Renaissance the book stresses the need for scholarship to catch up with the historical reality of the New Negro experience This more comprehensive vision serves as a lens through which to better understand capitalist developments imperial expansions and the formation of brave new worlds in the early twentieth century Contributors Anastasia Curwood Vanderbilt U Frank A Guridy U of Texas at Austin Claudrena Harold U of Virginia Jeannette Eileen Jones U of Nebraska Lincoln Andrew W Kahrl Marquette U Shannon King College of Wooster Charlie Lester Thabiti Lewis Washington State U Vancouver Treva Lindsey U of Missouri Columbia David Luis Brown Claremont Graduate U Emily Lutenski Saint Louis U Mark Anthony Neal Duke U Yuichiro Onishi U of Minnesota Twin Cities Theresa Runstedtler U at Buffalo SUNY T Denean Sharpley Whiting Vanderbilt U Michelle Stephens Rutgers U New Brunswick Jennifer M Wilks U of Texas at Austin Chad Williams Brandeis U
