THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

This Notice of Privacy Practices describes how we may use and disclose your protected health information (PHI) to carry out treatment, payment, or health care operations (TPO) and for other purposes that are permitted or required by law. It also describes your rights to access and control your protected health information. "Protected health information" is information about you, including demographic information, that may identify you and that relates to your past, present, or future physical or mental health or condition and related health care services.

I. Uses and Disclosures of Protected Health Information

Uses and Disclosures of Protected Health Information

Your PHI may be used and disclosed by your therapist, our office staff, and others outside of our office that are involved in your care and treatment for the purpose of providing mental health services to you, to pay your mental health care bills, to support the operation of the therapist's practice, and any other use required by law.

Treatment: We will use and disclose your PHI to provide, coordinate, or manage your mental health care and any related services. This includes the coordination or management of your health care with a third party. For example, we would disclose your PHI, as necessary, to a third party provider to whom you have been referred to ensure that the provider has the necessary information to diagnose or treat you.

Payment: Your PHI will be used, as needed, to obtain payment for your mental health care services. For example, obtaining approval for counseling services may require that your relevant PHI be disclosed to the health plan to obtain approval for said treatment.

Healthcare Operations: We may use or disclose, as needed, your PHI in order to support the business activities of your therapist's practice. These activities may include, but are not limited to, quality assurance activities, licensing, and conducting or arranging for other business activities. For example, we may disclose your PHI, as necessary, to contact you to remind you of your appointment.

We may use or disclose your PHI in the following situations without your authorization. These situations include: as Required By Law, Public Health issues (as required by law), Abuse or Neglect, Legal Proceedings, Law Enforcement, Danger to Self or Others, . Under the law, we must make disclosures to you and when required by the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services to investigate or determine our compliance with the requirements of Section 164.500.

Other permitted and required Uses and Disclosures will be made only with your consent, authorization, or opportunity to object unless required by law.

You may revoke this authorization at any time, in writing, except to the extent that your therapist or the therapist's practice has taken an action in reliance on the use or disclose indicated in the authorization.
