George S. Tavlas,2023-06-01 An essential origin story of modern society's most influential economic doctrine The Chicago School of economic thought has been subject to endless generalizations and mischaracterizations in contemporary debate What is often portrayed as a monolithic obsession with markets is in fact a nuanced set of economic theories born from decades of research and debate The Monetarists is a deeply researched history of the monetary policies and personalities that codified the Chicago School of monetary thought from the 1930s through the 1960s These policies can be characterized broadly as monetarism the belief that prices and interest rates can be kept stable by controlling the amount of money in circulation As economist George S Tavlas makes clear these ideas were more than just the legacy of Milton Friedman they were a tradition in theory brought forth by a crucible of minds and debates throughout campus Through unprecedented mining of archival material The Monetarists offers the first complete history of one of the twentieth century's most formative intellectual periods and places It promises to elevate our understanding of this doctrine and its origins for generations to come

The Cult of Smart Fredrik deBoer,2020-08-04 Named one of Vulture's Top 10 Best Books of 2020 Leftist firebrand Fredrik deBoer exposes the lie at the heart of our educational system and demands top to bottom reform Everyone agrees that education is the key to creating a more just and equal world and that our schools are broken and failing Proposed reforms variously target incompetent teachers corrupt union practices or outdated curricula but no one acknowledges a scientifically proven fact that we all understand intuitively Academic potential varies between individuals and cannot be dramatically improved In The Cult of Smart educator and outspoken leftist Fredrik deBoer exposes this omission as the central flaw of our entire society which has created and perpetuated an unjust class structure based on intellectual ability Since cognitive talent varies from person to person our education system can never create equal opportunity for all Instead it teaches our children that hierarchy and competition are natural and that human value should be based on intelligence These ideas are counter to everything that the left believes but until they acknowledge the existence of individual cognitive
