Deuced Perry Crowe,2005 Meet the Oblivion Brothers Zip and Otto Boyhood friends raised on television s hypnotic glow and intangible promises they set off from the heartland following its siren song to the source Los Angeles Now they work in the entertainment industry producing what once dazzled their young eyes But today s Hollywood has the accent firmly on the industry and not the entertainment Glamour and glitz have turned to cubicles and fluorescent lights as the industry swells past any hope of quality control But for Zip and Otto inside the machine churning out anything to fill the technicolor veins of the viewing public the sparkles fade from everything and are replaced by the smeared fingerprints of Man That is until Zip hears another song this one poured from the lips of Irene Mathy musician and awestruck visitor to Los Angeles With the world suddenly dazzling again Zip stumbles off after the twinkling lights Otto too strikes out on his own making a push for career success in the fields of nepotism and egoism of television production But with the Brothers divided will they be strong enough to handle a fate worse than oblivion Deuced is a story of relationships the ones we have with each other the ones we have with the world around us and the ones we have with ourselves It s about the frustrating discrepancy between theory and practice the awful toll Man pays for his self awareness and how we all try to get by And how in the end we re all deuced

Regenerate Tony Scarcello,2020-09-24 Loss Fear Doubt What does anything mean when your ground of being is stripped away Tony met God when he was four years old through the love of his mother When he was twelve he realized he had a crush on one of his male friends and grew convinced God would have nothing to do with him At sixteen Tony reencountered God who affirmed that nothing stood between them but love When he was twenty three married to the girl of his dreams and on staff at a church Tony s secret came out and he came close to losing it all What followed was arduous years of deconstruction losing everything he thought he knew about God only to rediscover God in the mystery This God was not a new God it was the same one as before just seen with regenerated faith This God was more beautiful and restorative than Tony could have ever imagined Tony's story is not uncommon in the modern evangelical landscape Thousands of people throughout the West are experiencing a crisis of faith that is commonly referred to as deconstruction With raw honesty Tony uses his own story as a starting point for a dialogue on the deconstruction process Tony unpacks what the deconstruction process is why it happens and how the church can help people experiencing a crisis of faith without worsening it along the way In this memoir Tony candidly pleads for the church to make a turn not to a trendier progressive version of Christianity nor to a stricter form of fundamentalism but to the revolutionary Jesus centered movement that changed the face of the earth A movement once better known for its society of healing love than its dogma The Canine in All of Us Daniel Desjardin, 2010-08-25
