Journal of the National Cancer Institute ,1990      Evaluation Time Gail Vallance

Barrington,Beverly Triana-Tremain,2022-08-30 This book is an accessible contemporary and comprehensive guide to the concepts and practice of evaluation Authors Gail Vallance Barrington and Beverly Triana Tremain integrate new approaches and concerns and classic frameworks with practical tools that readers can use to design evaluation studies They show how evaluators measure whether the planned and implemented interventions or services are achieving their goals and objectives while focusing on the questions most important to the community and organizations in which the evaluation takes place The book stresses the role of critical and evaluative thinking as well as self reflection and demonstrates the importance of context and equity in today's turbulent environment offering a new stance for evaluators to support global as well as local issues

Civic Engagement in Food System Governance Alan R. Hunt, 2015-10-05 The local food movement is one of the most active of current civil engagement social movements. This work presents primary evidence from over 900 documents, interviews, and participant observations and provides the first descriptive history of local food movement, national policy achievements in the US from 1976 to 2013 and in the UK from 1991 to 2013, together with reviews of both the American and British local food movements. It provides a US-UK comparative context, significantly updating earlier comparisons of American, British, and European farm and rural policies. The comparative perspective shows that over time more effective strategies for national policy change required social movement building strategies such as collaborative policy coalitions, capacity building for smaller organizations, and policy entrepreneurship for joining together separate rural, farming, food, and health interests. In contrast, narrowly defined single-issue campaigns often undermined long-term policy change, even if short-term wins emerged. By profiling interviews of American and English movement leaders, policymakers, and funders, the book demonstrates that democratic participation in food policy is best supported when funders incentivize groups to work together and overcome their differences.

Women in the Digital World Anya Schiffrin, Karolina Koc-Michalska, Michelle Ferrier, 2023-04-04 Women's existence in the digital world has been closely studied by scholars and attracted the attention of activists worldwide. Women like men early on saw the Internet as a potentially powerful and liberating tool that would help them find groups or communities with similar aims and interests. Today, there is more awareness of the deleterious effects of unconstrained online speech, such as online violence, ridicule, silencing, and threats against women. Women in the Digital World brings together the latest academic research on women online and includes chapters on political speech, gendered online violence, dealing with sexual assaults, marginalization of women politicians, and how women participate or don't via online environments. The interdisciplinary research in this volume brings together communications studies, gender studies, sociology, politics, and computer science and is essential reading for those seeking to understand a growing field. The book should be of interest also for activists and NGOs who seek to deepen their knowledge on the place of females online. It was originally published as a special issue of the journal Information Communication Society.
