Sfetcu, 2014-05-02 A short introduction about Easter from the perspective of various religions traditions and cultures including Easter season Easter bread Easter eggs greetings etc Easter is the most important religious holiday of the Christian liturgical year observed in March April or May to celebrate the resurrection of Jesus which Christians believe occurred after his death by crucifixion in AD 27-33 see Good Friday Easter can also refer to the season of the church year lasting for fifty days which follows this holiday and ends at Pentecost The Easter festival is kept in many different ways among Western Christians The traditional liturgical observation of Easter as practised among Roman Catholics and some Lutherans and Anglicans begins on the night of Holy Saturday with the Easter Vigil This the most important liturgy of the year begins in total darkness with the blessing of the Easter fire the lighting of the large Paschal candle symbolic of the Risen Christ and the chanting of the Exsultet or Easter Proclamation attributed to Saint Ambrose of Milan A short introduction about Easter from the perspective of various religions traditions and cultures including Easter season Easter bread Easter eggs greetings etc Missional Worship, Worshipful Mission Ruth A. Meyers, 2014-12-12 Missiology A robust and practical theology that integrates worship and mission into a seamless whole Anglican Episcopal History A very useful and insightful text A remarkable synthesis of most of the best insights liturgical scholars and missiologists have gained regarding the relationship between mission and liturgy over the last decades George R Hunsberger Western Theological Seminary Ruth Meyers brings a deep grasp of what is at stake in the rediscovery of mission as the essence of the church together with a generous mastery of liturgical traditions to provide vision for seeing these two dimensions of the church's life as one This is the handbook that should accompany every Christian community on its worshipping witnessing journey Stephen B Bevans SVD Catholic Theological Union A wonderful faith filled meditation on the missional heart of worship A new classic in liturgical studies and in missiology as well Todd E Johnson Brehm Center Fuller Theological Seminary Ruth Meyers's approach to the issues surrounding worship and mission is spot on Instead of approaching worship from a missional slant or mission from a liturgical perspective she takes both topics back to their biblical and historical roots the nature of the church In practical and insightful ways Meyers demonstrates how a church's ministry in the world and its regular offering of worship reinforce one another Her careful direct evenhanded approach is a breath of fresh air to much of the current theological discourse Taylor W Burton Edwards Worship Resources Discipleship Ministries of The United Methodist Church Seminarians pastors deacons and worship leaders seeking to understand articulate or imagine how the basic and most enduring structures of Christian worship engage worshipers in the mission of God will discover in these pages both Meyers's wise and challenging counsel and many wonderful companions for the journey International Bulletin of Missionary Research A helpful and timely new resource In Missional Worship Meyers does excellent work developing the notion that mission and worship are inseparably and integrally related Anglican and Episcopal History A very useful and insightful text particularly for those just beginning to explore the field of liturgical studies The book is a remarkable synthesis of most of the best insights liturgical scholars and missiologists have gained regarding the relationship between mission and liturgy over the last decades Church Times Myers deserves to be read because we need to hear this message in all parts of the Church of England today

The Collected Sermons of David Bartlett David L. Bartlett, 2020-01-21 This collection of fifty two sermons shows beloved New Testament scholar David Bartlett at his best Bartlett who died in 2017 spent his career teaching and mentoring preachers at The University of Chicago Divinity School Yale Divinity School Union Presbyterian Seminary and Columbia Theological Seminary as well as serving as a pastor in American Baptist churches Thus he has generations of friends and former students who knew him for his quick wit passion for justice and deep knowledge of the Bible Those traits show through in these sermons As Nora Tisdale says in the foreword All of the sermons in this volume give witness to David's passion for preaching that is solidly grounded in the biblical text Most of them actually begin as Karl Barth urged preachers to begin with the biblical text If they don't begin there they always get there fairly quickly And David's interpretations of texts often surprise the reader with their freshness and clarity In addition to individual sermons several multiweek sermon series including a series on Who Is Jesus and Great Words of the Faith are included

Celebrating Liturgical Time J. Neil Alexander, 2014-10 Celebrating Liturgical Time continues the standard of scholarship set by Patrick Malloy's Celebrating the Eucharist It is ideal for students

Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society, 1901 Holy Women, Holy Men Church Publishing, 2010 Fully revised and expanded this new work is the first major revision of the liturgical calendar of the Episcopal Church in more than 40 years It is the official revision of Lesser Feasts and Fasts and authorized by the 2009 General Convention All commemorations in Lesser Feasts and Fasts have been retained and many new ones added Three scripture readings instead of current two are provided for all minor holy days Additional new material includes a votive mass of the Blessed Virgin Mary many more ecumenical commemorations plus a proper for space exploration For years the oft revised volume Lesser Feasts and Fasts LFF has served parishes and individuals mark part of the holiness of each day by providing Scripture readings a collect a Eucharistic preface and a narrative about those remembered on the church's calendar that day whose lives have witnessed to the grace of God Holy Women Holy Men HWHM is a major effort to revise but also to expand and enrich LFF Where LFF provided two readings gospel and other New Testament plus a psalm HWHM adds an Old Testament citation Where LFF was limited to few non Anglicans in the post reformation period and few non Episcopalians after 1789 HWHM dramatically broadens appreciation for other Christians and their traditions Over emphasis on clergy is redressed by additional laity males by females and in church activities by contributions well beyond the workings of institutional agendas These almost daily commemorations occupy over 600 of the book's 785 pages by far the lion's share of its content Remaining sections address principles of revision and guides for future revision liturgical propers for seasons Advent Christmas Lent and Easter and new propers for a miscellany of propers usable with individuals or events not officially listed in the formal calendar Two cycles of propers for daily Eucharist are also included one covering a six week period the other a two year cycle

Exciting Holiness Tristram, 2007 Common Worship reintroduced the Anglican Church to its saints those 232 men and women whose examples excite others to holy living and to whom a date in the calendar is designated for their remembrance each year It had already sold more than 10 000 copies when lacking an equivalent liturgical resource for the extra saints days in the Celtic calendars the Church of Ireland the Episcopal Church of Scotland and the Church in Wales requested an expanded version to include additional prayers and readings for many locally celebrated saints who shaped the faith in these islands Now reissued by popular demand in a more convenient smaller format here is a complete resource for Eucharistic worship on all festivals and feast days It remains the only volume of its kind providing prayers and Scripture readings for each day of the calendars of four national Anglican provinces It has now been updated to include five additional commemorations added to the Church of England's calendar

The Church Calendar for the Year of Our Lord Nineteen Hundred and Ten Episcopal Church. Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society, Merrymount Press, 1910*
