Character Makes the Man Tommy R. Young II,2013-09-12 Throughout its 126 year history Kentucky Military Institute educated more than eleven thousand young men and boys It was never the intention of the founder of the school Colonel Robert P T Allen or his successors to train soldiers Although the daily life was patterned after the life of West Point cadets the military discipline was intended to teach the young men the value of order and discipline in the conduct of their lives The goal of educating young men to live useful and productive lives would remain the primary goal of the school even when it ceased to be a college and became a preparatory school in the twentieth century Although Character Makes the Man did not become the school motto until the early twentieth century it would have been applicable throughout the schools history      Infantry Field Manual United States. Life in a Rear View Mirror Douglas E.S. Horne, 2008-01-04 LIFE IN A REAR VIEW MIRROR begins with a cryptic and purposefully humorous review of the author's life from birth through the formative years. This life is transformed by the forces of war, providing a first view of death from a very close perspective. This haunting experience is followed by inscription into Military Service and the perilous training that follows to develop a warrior. The story progresses through a peace time service fraught with the problems of unprofessional elements within. Thrust into war in SE Asia, the military next contends with experts unable to accept the new challenge: guerrilla warfare. Recounts of duty in SE Asia demonstrate the horrors of war and those elements of humor intertwined throughout this process of fighting a war without definitive guidelines and lacking the total support of your government. Post war assignments with foreign nations and a brief service in the black world with the CIA conclude this military career. The story culminates with a new war, RETIREMENT, and the pitfalls it holds for ex military personnel.
