Globalization on the Margins (2nd Edition) Iveta Silova, Sarfarozi Niyozov, 2020-01-01 Reflecting on almost three decades of postsocialist transformations the second edition of Globalization on the Margins explores continuities and changes in Central Asian education development since the dissolution of the Soviet Union in 1991 with a particular focus on the developments that took place since the production of the first edition in 2011 Rather than viewing these transformations in isolation the authors place their analyses within the global context by reflecting on the interaction between Soviet legacies and global education reform pressures in the Central Asian countries of Kazakhstan Kyrgyzstan Tajikistan Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan This new edition in addition to a revised introduction and a newly added conclusion consists of four thematic sections each reflecting a key theme in the educational life of the Central Asian states These thematic sections introduction and conclusion collectively update our understanding of the recent developments and challenges in education of the five Central Asian states They however go beyond mere information update so as to complicate re engage re form and re define the margins taking up margins a conceptual geographic cultural and geo political construct Notwithstanding the diversity of local and international authors variety of theoretical perspectives methodological approaches and conceptual lenses the essays reveal the complexity and uncertainty of the post socialist education transformations Instead of portraying the transition process as the influx of Western ideas into the region Globalization on the Margins provides new lenses to critically example education as a contested field of diverse perspectives competing forces and multidirectional flow of ideas concepts and reforms in Central Asia

ENDORSEMENTS

Hindsight famously brings clarity And much of what happened after the fall of the Berlin Wall and the collapse of the Soviet Union has now been correctly deeded over to historians Nonetheless we ignore that history at our peril The contributors to this volume show that carefully textured and historically attuned education research generates deep insights into ongoing transformations and the political cultural social and economic structures relations and practices that do the work of producing margins and centers in the first place Noah W Sobe Loyola University Chicago

Globalization on the margins and at the epicentre of the battles of the Great Powers Two excellent educators Sarfaroz Niyozov and Iveta Silova compiled a timely and long awaited scholarly work based on empirical research in societies which had similar history close to three decades ago All the contributors are prolific educators who know the education system from within and without who either hailed from the region or have spent a considerable amount of time to know the systems well The book contains remarkable stories of education through the ups and downs of historical evolution It is a must read primer for anyone interested in learning about high quality research in the field of education in Central Asia It is a huge contribution to educational research with an impact on research and teaching for years to come Duishon Shamatov Nazarbayev University Kazakhstan

The challenge of moving Central Asia from the borders of the Soviet Empire to the world s center is the focus of the discussions in Globalization on the Margins The transition to the Western models of education was happening in the context of major paradigm shift which entire humanity was experiencing and which could be described as the arrival of the new post industrial civilization During this process Central Asian countries have been pushed to the margins because their contribution to the wealth of the new world know how was much less pronounced than that of their Western neighbours Therefore investment into the research that contributes to local knowledge production seems a natural solution to the problem All the contributors to this book have a vast experience in the region and many of their observations are thought provoking This is a very insightful and much needed book Elena Lenskaya Moscow School of Social and Economic Sciences Russia

Multiple Alterities Elie Podeh, Samira Alayan, 2017-12-18 This book highlights and examines the role of the textbook in legitimising established political and social orders It analyses the way in which the other is presented in school textbooks focusing on a number of countries in the Middle East and North Africa MENA region and argues that the role of textbooks in developing and maintaining a national identity should be afforded greater critical attention Textbooks can help form national identities by developing a society's collective memory this might involve a historical narrative which may be self contradictory or even fabricated to a certain extent including myths symbols and collective memories that divide us from them and ultimately resulting a dichotomy between the Self and the Other As well as addressing a range of theoretical questions relating to the study of textbooks generally the volume also covers a broad spectrum of Middle Eastern states and societies with contributions from Turkey Iran Egypt Cyprus Lebanon Iraq Kurdistan Jordan Morocco Tunisia Israel and Palestine It will be essential reading for researchers and students working in the fields of Education Sociology and History particularly those with an interest in national identities in the MENA region      Raising the Impact of Education Research in Africa Charl C. Wolhuter,2018-12-01 The low demonstrable effect of education research done in South Africa in particular and Africa in general continues to be a problem in scientific records in the educational sciences This scholarly collected work addresses this obstacle and focuses on recommendations from scholars in different sectorial categories in the field of education Scholars from a variety of sub fields within the educational sciences reflect on this particular matter revisiting the history of research and research outcomes and offering informed recommendations based on in depth investigation and analysis of aspects of the various discourses within the relevant sub fields The scope of the content of this collected work centres on the issue of the lack of scientific records concerning the scientific raising of the impact of education research The book aims at making a specific contribution to the educational sciences by stimulating scholarly discussion around how to increase the recording of the significance of educational research done in Africa and in South Africa in particular and to redirect the research agenda into the direction of making more impact Impact is conceptualised to mean both scholarly impact that is being cited and being used as foundation for theory building and for further research and practical impact that is improvement of practice teaching and learning in education institutions at all levels      Holocaust Education and the Semiotics of Othering in Israeli Schoolbooks Nurit Elhanan-Peled,2023-09-11 The Zionist pedagogical narrative reproduced in schoolbooks views the migration of Jews to Israel as the felicitous conclusion of the journey from the Holocaust to the Resurrection It negates all forms of diasporic Jewish life and culture and ignores the history of Palestine during the 2000 year long Jewish exile This narrative otherizes three main groups vis vis whom Israeliness is constituted Holocaust victims who are presented in a traumatizing manner as the stateless and therefore persecuted Jews we refuse but might become again if we lose control over Palestinian Arabs who constitute the second group of others Palestinians are racialized demonized and portrayed as our potential exterminators The third group of others comprises non European Mizrahi and Ethiopian Jews They are described as backward people who lack history or culture and must undergo constant acculturation to fit into Israel s Western society Thus a rhetoric of victimhood and power evolves and a nationalistic interpretation of the never again imperative is inculcated justifying the Occupation and oppression of Palestinians and the marginalization of non European Jews This rhetoric is conveyed multimodally through discourse genres and visual elements The present study which advocates a multidirectional memory proposes an alternative Hebrew Arabic multi voiced and poly centered curriculum that would relate the accounts of the people whom the pedagogic narrative seeks to conceal and exclude This joint curriculum will differ from the present one not only in content but also ideologically and semiotically Instead of traumatizing and urging vengeance it will encourage discussion and celebrate diversity and hybridity      The Knowledge

Gap Natalie Wexler,2020-08-04 Essential reading for teachers education administrators and policymakers alike STARRED Library Journal The untold story of the root cause of America s education crisis It was only after years within the education reform movement that Natalie Wexler stumbled across a hidden explanation for our country s frustrating lack of progress when it comes to providing every child with a quality education The problem wasn t one of the usual scapegoats lazy teachers shoddy facilities lack of accountability It was something no one was talking about the elementary school curriculum s intense focus on decontextualized reading comprehension skills at the expense of actual knowledge In the tradition of Dale Russakoff s The Prize and Dana Goldstein s The Teacher Wars Wexler brings together history research and compelling characters to pull back the curtain on this fundamental flaw in our education system one that fellow reformers journalists and policymakers have long overlooked and of which the general public including many parents remains unaware But The Knowledge Gap isn t just a story of what schools have gotten so wrong it also follows innovative educators who are in the process of shedding their deeply ingrained habits and describes the rewards that have come along students who are not only excited to learn but are also acquiring the knowledge and vocabulary that will enable them to succeed If we truly want to fix our education system and unlock the potential of our neediest children we have no choice but to pay attention Creating Stellar Lessons with Digital Tools Kenneth J. Luterbach,2022-05-12 Creating Stellar Lessons with Digital Tools prepares teachers in training and in service teachers to use technologies for design and development activities with middle and high school students While software open resources handheld devices and other tools hold great potential to enhance learning experiences teachers themselves must model technology use in ways that inspire students to become producers and leaders rather than consumers and followers Featuring concrete applications in social studies English mathematics and science scenarios this book provides pre service and in service teachers with seven paths to creatively integrate and innovate with computational thinking datasets maker spaces visual design media editing and other approaches Catalog of Captioned Educational Videos and Films ,1993 Catalog of Educational Captioned Films/videos for the Deaf ,1993 Data for Learning World Bank Group,2017-09-21 Data are a crucial ingredient in any successful education system but building and sustaining a data system are challenging tasks Many countries around the world have spent significant resources but still struggle to accomplish a functioning Education Management Information System EMIS On the other hand countries that have created successful systems are harnessing the power of data to improve education outcomes Increasingly EMISs are moving away from using data narrowly for counting students and schools Instead they use data to drive system wide innovations accountability professionalization and most important quality and learning This broader use of data also benefits classroom instruction and support at schools An effective data system ensures that education cycles from preschool to tertiary are aligned and that the education system is monitored so it can achieve its ultimate goal producing graduates able to successfully transition into the labor market and contribute to the overall national economy Data for Learning Building a

Smart Education Data System and its forthcoming companion volume shed light on challenges in building a data system and provide actionable direction on how to navigate the complex issues associated with education data for better learning outcomes and beyond Data for Learning details the key ingredients of successful data systems including tangible examples common pitfalls and good practices It is a resource for policy makers working to craft the vision and strategic road map of an EMIS as well as a handbook to assist teams and decision makers in avoiding common mistakes It is designed to provide the how to and to guide countries at various stages of EMIS deployment A forthcoming companion volume will focus on digging deeper into the practical applications of education data systems by various user groups in different settings
