Ellis,2020-03-17 A series of near riots on campuses aimed at silencing guest speakers has exposed the fact that our universities are no longer devoted to the free exchange of ideas in pursuit of truth But this hostility to free speech is only a symptom of a deeper problem writes John Ellis Having watched the deterioration of academia up close for the past fifty years Ellis locates the core of the problem in a change in the composition of the faculty during this time from mildly left leaning to almost exclusively leftist He explains how astonishing historical luck led to the success of a plan first devised by a small group of activists to use college campuses to promote radical politics and why laws and regulations designed to prevent the politicizing of higher education proved insufficient Ellis shows that political motivation is always destructive of higher learning Even science and technology departments are not immune The corruption of universities by radical politics also does wider damage to primary and secondary education to race relations to preparation for the workplace and to the political and social fabric of the nation Commonly suggested remedies new free speech rules or enforced right of center appointments will fail because they don t touch the core problem a controlling faculty majority of political activists with no real interest in scholarship This book proposes more drastic and effective reform measures The first step is for Americans to recognize that vast sums of public money intended for education are being diverted to a political agenda and to demand that this fraud be stopped Entrepreneurship David Deakins,Jonathan M. Scott,2024-03-16 This popular and well received standard text on

Entrepreneurship has been completely revised and updated for the second edition The text retains the favourably reviewed features of the first edition which include the importance of context diversity and differing international entrepreneurial practice yet is underpinned by coverage and application of relevant theory In particular the text now contains important and entirely new sections on entrepreneurship in the face of multiple global crises evidence on entrepreneurial resilience new case study material on examples of international entrepreneurship from developing countries including a new section on Entrepreneurship in Sub Saharan Africa new case material on clean technology entrepreneurship and on green finance and a new chapter on Indigenous Entrepreneurship All chapters have been completely updated to reflect increased diversity and the place of Entrepreneurship in the context of multiple global crises The text retains the pedagogic features of the first edition which are consistent throughout the text and include learning outcomes boxed case studies with discussion questions policy and practical issues summaries of each chapter recommended reading and suggested assignments The text is complemented by online support material for tutors Radical Realism, Autofictional Narratives and the Reinvention of the Novel Fiona J. Doloughan,2023-02-14 This monograph treats modes of fictionality in contemporary auto biography memoir and autofiction Adopting a case study approach it demonstrates the extent to which contexts of production and reception are important in framing generic expectations with respect to the representation of lived experience and in helping to determine the status of the narrator as fictional persona or implied author Scientific and Technical Aerospace Reports ,1993

Entrepreneurial Creativity in a Virtual World Denise Tsang,2015-05-29 The start of the 21st century has seen an explosion of online media with creative content becoming a driving force for competitiveness As twin engines of the digital economy much has been said about both creativity and entrepreneurship but less about their relationship Regional Research Frontiers - Vol. 1 Randall Jackson,Peter Schaeffer,2017-04-17 This volume focuses on frontiers in regional research and identifies trends and future developments in the areas of innovation regional growth and migration It also addresses topics such as mobility regional forecasting and regional policy and includes expert contributions on disasters resilience and sustainability Building on recent methodological and modelling advances as well as on extensive policy analysis experience top international regional scientists identify and evaluate emerging new conceptual and methodological trends and directions in regional research This book will appeal to a wide readership from regional scientists and economists to geographers quantitatively oriented regional planners and other related disciplines It offers a source of relevant information for academic researchers and policy analysts in government and is also suitable for advanced teaching courses on regional and spatial science economics and political science
