

Writing the Grade 10 History Essay

The goal of a history essay is to present an arguable opinion about an issue & convince the reader that your opinion is valid and worth reading. It would also help if you convinced your reader that your opinion is correct. Your job is to take one side of an argument and persuade your audience that you have well-founded knowledge of the topic being presented. A good history paper suggests to the reader that you are not only well-informed about the topic, but also that your opinion about the topic is right!

Organizing the Essay

1. Introduction → There are three parts to a successful introduction:
 - a. Immediately engage the reader in your topic & provide some background information (2 or 3 sentences)
 - b. Assert your THESIS – choose your words with care!
 - c. Provide a BLUEPRINT or outline of the arguments to follow in the body of the essay. You should have 3-5 arguments here.
“This can be demonstrated through an examination of a, b, c, and d.”

<The introduction is your own work. As the author of the essay, it is YOUR responsibility to introduce the argument so it is best to avoid quotes from other authors here.>

2. Your Arguments → One paragraph per argument. Each paragraph should look like this:
 - a. Assert your argument
 - b. Provide supporting evidence for your argument.

<One major argument per paragraph. If you have 3 arguments, you will do this step 3 times. If you have 5 arguments, you will do this step 5 times.>

3. Conclusion → This is one of the MOST IMPORTANT parts of your paper. Your conclusion is the last thing the reader will remember about your paper, so it should be STRONG:
 - a. Restate your argument. This might involve a simple re-wording of your thesis or a direct re-stating of it.
 - b. Summarize the main points you have used throughout your paper to back up your thesis.
